—MARTIAL LAW DECLARED—

Congo Disputes U.N.'s Purpose

By Andrew Borowiec

Leopoldville, The Congo (AP)—The Congo government, angrily challenging the U.N. role in this divided republic and arresting U.N. people, Tuesday proclaimed 6 months of martial law for the whole chaotic country.

It also demanded immediate withdrawal of Swedish U.N. troops.

Premier Patrice Lumumba charged U.N. forces failed to carry out their duties and made martial law necessary to meet what he called a crisis in the Congo.

If fully enforced as an instrument of Congo sovereignty, martial law could enormously complicate the U.N. task of bringing order to the Congo or could even force the U.N. out of the Congo altogether.

In effect, martial law might try to place the U.N. forces under Congo government orders and use them, for instance, against secessionist Katanga Province.

In his developing feud with U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, Premier Lumumba has asked for withdrawal of all white forces from Katanga Province. He has been especially critical of the Swedes, Hammarskjold's own countrymen.

In demanding the withdrawal of Swedish troops, he charged "they have done a very bad job" and accused them of opposing his government's authority and defending Belgian army officers.

The proclamation was announced after Congolese police and troops struck at U.N. staff members and Belgians in raids that underlined Lumumba's declaration of nonconfidence in the trend of U.N. efforts to save the Congo.

At a news conference where he announced the martial law decree, Lumumba repeated that Hammarskjold had failed in his task of obtaining evacuation of Belgian troops from the Congo and ending the secession of rich Katanga Province.

"Our government does not exist for the secretary general," the premier asserted.

Soon after Lumumba spoke, Hammarskjold arrived in New York to lay the Congo problems again before the U.N. Security Council.

A Congolese delegation is expected to appear when the council meets later this week. Hammarskjold refused to take the Congolese delegation along when he left here.

Lumumba said the martial law proclamation, signed by him and President Joseph Kasavubu, would take effect immediately.

He said military tribunals would be established to replace Belgian magistrates who fled the country but he did not explain what measures would be taken under martial law, to which he referred as a military regime.

Most Western newsmen had walked away from the news conference after police pointed bayonets at them in front of Lumumba's residence.

Several hours earlier, a menacing crowd of Congolese watched as a Negro patrol halted a car with white U.N. military personnel near the central post office and checked their documents. The onlookers shook their fists and screamed insults at the car's occupants. Whites were booed in similar scenes throughout the city.

Lumumba's police searches even extended to the main residence housing most of the U.N. staff and offices.

Eleven members of the U.N. staff were arrested briefly and scores were searched as the Congolese defiantly went ahead with plans to take over control of security now vested in the U.N. Congo command.

Decks Cleared For Wage Vote

Washington (AP)—The Senate Tuesday beat down attempts to curb Labor Department powers to regulate working conditions of migratory farm workers—clearing the decks for a crucial minimum wage bill vote Wednesday.

Democrats and Republicans, still accusing each other of stalling tactics, finally agreed to begin voting on the minimum wage i: e both parties have set up as a major goal of the reconvened session of Congress.

The political bickering pitched around the minimum wage proposals had taken up 6 days of Senate proceedings.

Late Tuesday the Senate defeated two attempts to deny the Secretary of Labor power to regulate wages, hours and working conditions of migratory farm workers.

At Mitchell

The proposals were aimed at Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell who last December made effective new rules governing prevailing wage rates, housing and transportation afforded migratory workers furnished farm operators through Labor Department agencies.

After these test votes, Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson obtained agreement for a mid-afternoon vote Wednesday on the first major minimum wage major issue

This is an amendment by Sen. Spessard L. Holland (D-Fla) to eliminate the bulk of the new coverage of the fair labor standards act contemplated by the pending Senate bill.

This bill, by Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, would boost the present $1 an hour minimum to $1.25 in 3 stages and include under the law about 5 million workers now exempted.

Ike Offered Less

President Eisenhower has proposed a $1.15 hourly minimum with about 3 million increased coverage.

The farm workers amendments defeated Tuesday would have been riders to the minimum wage bill but they had nothing to do with the basic wage-hour law itself. Kennedy opposed the farm worker riders as did Sen. Johnson, the Democrats' vice presidential nominee.

First the Senate struck down 80-18 an amendment by Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky) to deny the Labor Department authority to control farm worker employment conditions within the state in which the workers were recruited.

This was offered as a substitute for a much broader proposal by Sen. Holland to bar regulation of working conditions for farm workers no matter where recruited. The Holland amendment was beaten 56-42.

The two amendments related to a long dispute about the federal government's role in trying to improve the lot of migratory workers. Farm organizations have vigorously opposed Mitchell's efforts and have expressed fears more drastic moves may follow the relatively modest ones so far.

DeBrown Funeral Thursday

Former Member Of City Council

Funeral services for LeRoy H. (Buster) DeBrown, 71, former city councilman, will be held Thursday, 2 p.m., at Roper & Sons chapel.

Mr. DeBrown

Mr. DeBrown, who served on the council from 1941 to 1947, died Tuesday. He resided at 2345 Van Dorn.

In 1948 he was appointed as manager of the Municipal Airport by the council and was also named executive director of the City Housing Authority in 1952.

He served in both posts until 1959, resigning from the latter for reasons of ill health.

Early Auto Dealer

A native Nebraskan and a Lincoln resident since 1906, Mr. DeBrown was one of the early automobile dealers of the city.

Mr. DeBrown and his brother, Frank, founded the DeBrown Auto Sales Company in 1918. He served is its president until 1939 when he retired from active business to devote his time principally to management of the farm properties he owned.

Prior to founding the DeBrown firm, he was vice president of the Wertz Company founded in 1912. The Wertz company was purchased by the DeBrowns.

The DeBrown company also operated in Omaha from 1924 to 1938.

Mr. DeBrown was a member of Trinity Methodist Church, Elks and University Club.

Services will be held at Roper & Sons Mortuary at 4300 O with the Rev. Darrel E. Berg officiating. Burial will be in Wyuka.

Survivors include his wife, Jane; daughter, Mrs. Howard Agee of Omaha; brother, Frank DeBrown of Lincoln; and 4 grandchildren.

Clouds Might Carry Showers On Wednesday

Cloudy skies and scattered showers are forecast for most of the state Wednesday, with cooler temperatures moving into the western portions.

Thunderstorms and scattered showers are predicted for central Nebraska Wednesday afternoon, and in the east and Panhandle Wednesday night.

The weatherman promises cooler temperatures in the west and Panhandle with highs in the lower 80s west to near 90s east. Panhandle highs will range from 70 to 80.

Gusting winds which blew across the state Tuesday brought light precipitation to scattered areas.

Thunderstorms and light rain showers were reported from Alliance and Chadron late Tuesday. Rain reported for the rest of the state included: Omaha, .18; North Omaha, .15; Sidney, .13; Scottsbluff, .02; Offutt Field, .35. The Lincoln Air Base also reported a thunderstorm and light shower.

Imperial temperatures rose to a state high of 93 Tuesday, and it was 89 in Lincoln.

—Powers Trial Has Circus Atmosphere—

SOVIET CARDS FIXED

Lawyers Can Observe Only

RUSS SPECTACLE OPENS IN GLITTERING HALL OF COLUMNS

From Press Reports

Moscow—The Soviet Union today put Francis Gary Powers, son of a Virginia coal miner, on trial for his life on charges he spied on Russia from a U-2 airplane 12 miles in the air. The cards look stacked against him.

The American flier—31 years old today—entered the courtroom improvised in the Hall of Columns of the Soviet Trade Union building in downtown Moscow at 10:04 a.m. and took his place in the prisoners' box in answer to a summons from his 3 judges in military uniform.

Powers appeared to be in good health and showed no signs of nervousness.

He wore a well fitting, single-breasted Navy blue suit and a dark red necktie.

His dark hair was in a crew cut.

He carried a light blue cardboard folder which apparently contained material for his defense.

The Soviet government made it clear beforehand it considered the U.S. government on trial with Powers.

It was the first time Powers had seen a member of his family—or any Westerner—since he was shot out of the air by a Soviet rocket near Sverdlovsk, 1,200 miles inside Russia, May 1.

Prayer On Lips

Power's wife, Barbara, 25, went to the trial with a prayer on her lips and an ache in her heart for the man she called "the most wonderful person I ever met."

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Powers, also were determined to sit through the proceedings despite the fact Powers' mother has a weak heart.

The trial opened in the same place where Rachmaninoff and Tchiakowsky once performed for the czars.

Barbara Powers was completely in black with a black hat, her somber costume relieved only by white gloves.

Under the blazing light of 50 crystal chandeliers and before and audience of 1,500 invited Soviet citizens, diplomatic observers and foreign and soviet newsmen, the trial began with the 3 judges questioning Powers about his family background and education.

His wife leaned her head on her left hand, her elbow on the arm of her chair. Now and again she stifled a cough, but otherwise was completely composed. Her medical adviser, Dr. James Baugh of Milledgeville, Ga., had told reporters he was giving her tranquilizers during the trial to preserve her composure.

Put Up Exhibit

As a backdrop for the trial, the Soviet government arranged an exhibit on the stage of the Hall of Columns of the personal equipment it said Powers carried on his flight.

Outside a drenching rain created a gloomy atmosphere and kept away the crowds who normally gather for every spectacle in Moscow. With the courtroom full of invited persons, police moved others along with grim gestures.

Prosecutor for the state is Roman A. Rodenko, chief Soviet prosecutor at the Nurenburg war crimes trials of Nazi leaders.

Powers was not permitted to have foreign defense lawyers. The Moscow Bar Association appointed Mikhail L. Grinov, noted Soviet attorney, to defend the American flier.

Earphones For Press

The press was seated in a narrow gallery running around 3 sides of the big room. Each press seat was equipped with earphones through which translations of the proceedings could be heard in English, German or French.

Outside the press gallery a press room was set up. Soviet authorities equipped it with an international telephone booth, 4 local telephone booths, a cables desk and two long tables with typewriters.

Downstairs there was a large buffet which served everything from caviar sandwiches and champagne to soft drinks for newsmen.

—FAIR GETS ROLLING AT WAHOO—

4-H Youths Have Things A'Cookin'

By Gene Budig

Wahoo — The aroma of freshly-baked muffins, pies and cakes was strong at the Saunders County Fairgrounds here Tuesday.

More than 200 of the county's 4-H'ers put forth their best kitchen efforts with judging under way.

Winners in the baking divisions will be announced Wednesday when the annual fair officially opens.

Early fairgrounds activity has been centered around the recently completed Home Economics building.

It's here that all the goodies, along with hundreds of other 4-H exhibits are housed.

This year, a 4-H worker estimated, more than 300 club members are vieing for ribbons.

The divisions of competition range anywhere from garden flowers to homemade oil paintings.

The worker said the number of entrants is "on par" with the last 5 years.

Livestock judging will be under way Wednesday and Thursday. At last count, some 200 animals had been entered for ratings.

"We're hoping this figure will be enlarged by another 50 or 60 head," a livestock judge said.

About half of the animals are now penned at the fairgrounds.

Also spicing the Saunders County festival are a carnival and rodeo.

More than 9,000 persons are expected to pass through the gates by Saturday night. The fair closes Saturday.

Budget Might Require Smaller Mill Increase

... DUE TO LOWER OUTLAY, REVENUE HIKE

By Virgil Falloon

Mayor Pat Boyles said Lincoln's 1960-61 budget of $15.4 million may require less than the estimated 1.2-mill increase at Tuesday night's hearing on the proposed budget.

"Some reduction is possible, but how much is uncertain at the moment," the mayor announced. "This is because of lower expenditures and higher revenue than anticipated for the remainder of this fiscal year."

With prefacing remarks regarding council-proposed increases in the budget, Mayor Boyles turned the hearing over to the some 25 persons attending.

However, only 7 persons spoke on the budget. Their remarks ranged from commendation to informational questions to cut costs.

Tom Pansing, a Chamber of Commerce vice president, praised the council "for courage and foresight in adopting the new budget," but urged funds be appropriated by the council and county board "to undertake further study of consolidation of city and county functions."

'Less For Parks'

John Liedtke charged the park department appropriation should be reduced.

"There are not many people in the parks on Sunday," he said. "I can't see spending more money when the state is coming in with recreational parks and fishing."

John Rowe of 634 So. 53rd requested consideration for storm sewer needs on South 53rd.

Mayor Boyles assured Rowe that the storm sewer budget is earmarked for existing areas and not new residential areas, where developers are now required to put in their own.

He said $1 million worth of storm sewers are needed, but the city hasn't that kind of money without a bond issue.

Walter Vallis suggested that the election budget be prepared for special elections next year on the proposed city-county building.

'Good Budget'

Lloyd Hendricks said the city budget is a "good one," but charged the council should dissolve the Airport Authority and its one-mill levy.

Leo Bartunek contended the city should hold the budget down (to the same mill levy as last year) like the county.

He also blasted "our former multi-million dollar mayors who are crying for a reduction on their property valuations."

"If you don't spend it, you don't have to ask for a reduction," said Bartunek, who later identified Victor Anderson and Bennett S. Martin as the mayors referred to in his remarks.

'Private Eyes'

Bartunek also suggested "if policemen cost us too much, the city should contract the job to a private protection agency."

L. K. Emry complimented the council on the two new swimming pools and park improvements budgeted. "The additional $1.20 per $1,000 (assessed valuation) isn't going to hurt my feelings," he said.

Afterwards, Mayor Boyles said the hearing "was much shorter than I anticipated."

City Finance Director James Mallon told newsmen he couldn't say how much could be cut from the estimated levy increase, but "there will be some."

The earlier estimate of a 1.2-mill increase would have brought the 1960 city levy to 17.9 mills, or $17.90 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

August Dollar Days Theme Is 'Big Values' For Shopper

Emphasis will be on "big values" for the thousands of shoppers from Lincoln and surrounding trade territory expected for the Downtown Lincoln Assn. August Dollar Days sales event, T. C. O'Donnell, Dollar Days chairman, said.

"Midwesterners look forward with anticipation to these late summer sales by downtown Lincoln merchants. August Dollar Days will be a red-letter event for smart shoppers," O'Donnell stated.

August Dollar Days will be Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This year they have been extended from the usual 3 days to 4.

Store hours will be 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. except Thursday when some stores will open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Some stores will open at 9:30 a.m. Thursday.

Hesteds Store at 1339 O will reopen Wednesday after a $100,000 remodeling which includes junior department store units of the merged J. J. Newberry Co. Hesteds plans regular Monday and Thursday evening openings.

'Disarm' Proposal Rejected

SOVIETS NIX U.S. PLAN

United Nations, N.Y. (AP) — The United States proposed Tuesday that U.S. and Soviet plants producing nuclear weapon materials be closed down one by one as a step toward disarmament.

The Soviet Union — showing up at the last minute at the opening of the 82-nation disarmament commission, rejected it as a rehash of old U.S. proposals.

Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. delegation chief, offered two dramatic alternatives for insuring that nuclear weapon material be restricted to peaceful uses. He said they were made in an effort to spur new East-West disarmament negotiations.

Pleaded

He pleaded with the Soviet block that walked out of 10-nation disarmament talks in Geneva last June 27 to resume negotiations and said the West is willing to hear any new Soviet proposals. The Soviet bloc dropped a boycott threat to attend Tuesday's session.

Lodge, the Republican candidate for vice president, was making his last major speech as chief delegate.

He proposed:

1. That the Soviet Union and the United States each turn over 66,000 pounds of weapons grade uranium 235 from existing accumulated weapons stocks to peaceful uses.

2. If the Soviet Union can't accept that, the United States is ready without delay to shut down one by one, under international inspection, major plants producing enriched uranium and plutonium provided the Soviet Union close down equivalent facilities.

Fidel Castro Leads Raid On Casa Blanca Arsenal

Many Are Arrested

. . . Mutiny Charged

Havana (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro Tuesday personally led an Army party in a dawn raid on the Cuban Navy's biggest arsenal and arrested its personnel on counter-revolutionary charges, authoritative sources disclosed.

There was no immediate announcement of the raid by Castro's government.

The installation, the Arsenal de Casa Blanca, is across the bay from Havana and a major mooring place for Cuban Navy vessels.

Unconfirmed reports said Maj. Juan Castineira, commander of the Cuban Navy, was under arrest.

Unconfirmed reports said Castro's force made an overland march, surrounded the base, and moved in as a Navy frigate, a vessel larger than a destroyer, was warming up its engines to leave on an unauthorized mission.

The purpose of the mission was not known — whether it was to be a raid or a mass flight from Cuba.

The Army, which has proved to be Castro's most loyal service branch, was reported occupying the arsenal, a sprawling establishment like a small, self-contained city, capable of accommodating more than 2,000 officers and men, including ships' crews.

Exodus Speeds Up

The alleged counter-revolutionary plot came as Cubans and foreigners rushed to leave the country before Castro's strict new travel curbs go into effect.

Travel bureaus and the ticket offices of foreign and domestic airlines reported all available space sold for the rest of the week. Special flights were expected to be scheduled by American carriers.

The Cuban Communist Party, meanwhile, staged its first open national assembly since the triumph of the Fidel Castro revolution Jan. 1, 1959. Prior to that date the Communist Party was outlawed.

Top international Communist delegates came from at least 10 foreign countries, including Soviet Russia, China, North Korea and East Germany.

Swedish Minister Says Youth Problems Universal

"The problems of youth are the same all over the world", according to the Rev. Karl Hellberg, of Stockholm, Sweden, who is attending the National Conference of the Methodist Youth Fellowship being held at Nebraska Wesleyan Univerity this week.

Sponsored by the general board of evangelism of the Methodist Church, the Swedish evangelist has been in this country since April.

Rev. Hellberg has been instrumental in organizing "Christian Fellowship Caravans" which are groups of about 30 Methodist young people who visit back and forth between the U.S. and Sweden every other year.

He added that these church sponsored groups of American and Swedish youths have done much to form strong bonds of mutual friendship and understanding between the two countries.

Rev. Hellberg, who with his wife, has been doing other Methodist youth evangelistic work in the U.S. this summer, will return to Sweden Sept. 9, where their 2 children, Elizabeth, 10, and Erik, 4, await them.

MYF Hears International Viewpoints

It was "International Night" Tuesday evening at the National Conference of the Methodist Youth Fellowship at Nebraska Wesleyan University.

The theme, "Where in the world is the Christian Fellowship?" was clearly expressed as 8 delegates spoke of experiences in Methodist evangelistic work in various places in the world.

Hugo Mayr, pastor of the second Methodist Church in Vienna, Austria, showed a picture of the Iron Curtain as it appears to the people of his country, and said "This reminds us that today we are constantly threatened by a movement to wipe out God and the Christian Church."

Howard Ellis, who attended the European Methodist Youth Conference, told delegates that "the United States is missionary territory too, if persons would just step outside their own church."

Donald Campbell, who toured Africa and India, told delegates that "everywhere you look, you can see the warmth of Christian fellowship through the eyes and smiles of the people you see."

The 80 by 40 barn, with 104 pigs in it, was wrecked. But not one of the animals was injured. The 1,000-bushel granary was lifted off its foundation and carried over two fences and a feed lot.

The twister hit within 100 feet of the Piva home.

In Oshkosh there was a third of an inch of rain in 20 minutes, accompanied by a high wind. No damage was reported.

Thorne Lad Was Killed

Dad Begged To Pay Ransom Demanded

Sydney, Australia, (UP) — Kidnaped Graeme Thorne, 8, son of a lottery winner who had begged for a chance to pay the $56,000 demanded for his safe return, was found dead in a Sydney suburb Tuesday.

The body of the little victim, who disappeared on his way from his apartment to school July 7, was bound and gagged. He had been dead for some time. The body, wrapped in a blanket, was partly decomposed.

Three small boys found the body in the brush about 7 miles north of Sydney. Police said the child probably died within 24 hours of being kidnapped. A preliminary medical examination failed to show the cause of death. Rewards totaling $32,000 have been offered in the case.

It was the final blow to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bazil Thorne, who had been abruptly plunged from the joy of winning $224,000 in a June state lottery to the terror of Australia's first kidnaping of a child for ransom.

S. African Mine Hit By Rockslide

Johannesburg, South Africa (AP)—A severe earth tremor Tuesday touched off a rockslide in a Johannesburg gold mine, trapping at least 13 miners. Another 22 were rescued.

The miners, mostly Africans, were trapped behind a wall of fallen rock 2,300 feet down.

Rescue teams worked continuously trying to force a way through to them.

Some of the rescued miners reported they heard voices behind the rockfall but after a while they ceased.

Thomson Takes Wyoming GOP Senate Primary

Cheyenne, Wyo. (UPI) — Rep. Keith Thomson, R-Wyo., won the Republican nomination to the U.S. Senate in the Wyoming primary election Tuesday.

Former Sen. Farnk A. Barrett, who was attempting a comeback after losing a bid for re-election to Democrat Gale McGee in 1958, conceded the nomination after Thomson had rolled up a margin of 5,379 to 2,467 in unofficial returns from 207 of 676 Wyoming precincts.

Barrett promised to "support the Republican ticket wholeheartedly in November."

In the Democratic race for the Senate nomination, Casper attorney Raymond B. Whitaker was building a steadily-increasing lead over Velma Linford, state superintendent of public instruction, and led 3,360 to 2,576.

The Senate candidates sought to succeed Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney, dean of Wyoming Democrats who is retiring this year.

Thomson's decision to forsake his seat in the House, the only one Wyoming has, for the Senate fight prompted 5 Republicans and 3 Democrats to seek nomination to succeed him.

Hepburn T. Armstrong took a strong lead over runnerup Dudley Miles, Carbon County prosecuting attorney, 4,068 to 2,833, for the Democratic nomination.

Former congressman William Henry Harrison, who left the House in 1954 for an unsuccessful try at the Senate against O'Mahoney, led in the Republican race for the House. He had 2,497 to 1,641 for his closest competitor.

3 Airplanes, Hangar Burn At St. Paul

St. Paul (AP)—Three airplanes and the hangar of the St. Paul Airport a mile north of town were destroyed by fire Tuesday.

The damage was estimated by St. Paul Fire Chief Dale Jorgensen at around $50,000.

The planes were owned by the Ash Flying Service of York and by Ray Bahensky and Ed Prochaska, farmers in the area.

The hangar was owned by Ed R. Jarecké, St. Paul implement dealer who had several pieces of farm equipment stored in the building. All were destroyed.

The fire spread from the hangar over grassland, burning some 5 acres before firemen could end the spread.

It is believed the blaze started in the Ash plane, Jorgensen said.

State's Personal Income Up Slightly

Drop In Farm Earnings Kept Figure Down

Washington (AP) — There was little change in the total personal income of Nebraskans last year.

The Commerce Department, in reporting this, said the dampening influence was a drop in farm income.

For the state, the total personal income in 1959 was $2,797,000,000 — a one per cent increase over the 1958 figure of $2,759,000,000.

The nation, during this same period, showed an increase of 6% to $380,664,000,000.

Ranks 31st

Nebraska's total places it in 31st position among the states and produced a per capita income of $1,981.

Here's what the department had to say about the situation:

"In contrast to the moderate upturn characterizing economic conditions throughout most of the country, personal income declines of about one-tenth occurred in North Dakota and South Dakota, and of 2% in Montana.

"There was little change in Kansas and Nebraska. In each of those 5 states, the dampening influence was an unusually large drop in farm income."

The Agriculture Department, meanwhile, reported that realized net farm income in Nebraska dropped from 18½ million dollars in 1958 to $328,900,000 in 1959 as compared with $526,700,000 the year before.

The department said the realized net income per farm in Nebraska was $3,257 last year as compared with $4,103 in 1958 while the total net income per farm dropped from $5,164 in 1958 to $3,642 in 1959.

Nebraska, however, ranked 9th in the nation last year in each of these categories.

The department reported that cash receipts from all commodities in Nebraska last year amounted to $1,210,656,000 as compared with $1,224,222,000 in 1958.

It said this was broken down to an increase in receipts from livestock and products from $762,161,000 in 1958 to $802,752,000 last year but a decrease from $62,061,000 to $407,904,000 in the receipts from crops.

Police Chief Might Have Trouble Finding 10 Men

Police Chief Joe Carroll expressed fear Tuesday that his department may have difficulty in hiring the 10 new men authorized by the City Council recently.

Carroll said he had asked the council to give "top priority" to salary raises. No police salary raises were approved by the council.

Carroll said police job applicants are carefully screened and must take lie detector tests before being hired. He said it may take until January to find 10 men who qualify.

"We are already having a problem keeping the men we have," he noted.

Carroll had asked the council to boost the monthly salary of first class patrolmen from $377.50 to $400.

The chief said 20 men left the 100-man force during the last year. He said this 20% turnover compares with a maximum turnover figure of 5% recommended by the National Safety Council, and he said in many cities the figure is only 1% to 3%.

The force, he said, is already one below its current authorized strength of 100 men.

Second Degree Murder Charge Facing Ruhr

Omaha (AP)—Admitted wife-slayer Richard Hubert Ruhr, 34, was charged with second degree murder Tuesday.

Ruhr, known in Omaha as Richard Mason, is serving a 5-year Nebraska Penitentiary sentence for robbery. He was brought here from Lincoln April 9 when the body of his wife, Dorothy, 34, was found in a shallow grave on a farm northwest of Omaha.

Ruhr admitted shooting his wife in October, 1959, while the two sat in a car parked north of Elk City, Neb.

Tuesday's charge was filed in Municipal Court. Deputy County Attorney Norman Denenberg said an investigation of Ruhr's mental background showed he is not insane from a legal standpoint.

Ike's Request Is Approved

...By Senate Unit

Washington (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee swiftly voted approval Tuesday of President Eisenhower's urgent request for 600 million dollars to launch a Latin American development program.

There was reluctance to act because the administration bill failed to spell out any details for use of the funds.

Chairman J. William Fullbright (D-Ark) said the committee nevertheless voted without dissent because of the critical world situation and a desire to strengthen Latin America against Communism.

In a message to Congress last week, Eisenhower pleaded for enactment of the legislation before the Sept. 5 economic conference of the American republics at Bogota, Columbia, "so that discussions leading to the development of detailed plans may be initiated there."

Maine was formerly a part of Massachusetts. In 1819 its citizens voted for separate statehood.

Keim Scholarship Awarded Whited

A University of Nebraska senior, Dean W. Whited, 1618 North 69th St., Lincoln, has been awarded the $500 F. D. Keim Memorial Scholarship for the 1960-61 school year.

Whited

Whited is majoring in agronomy at the College of Agriculture and plans to do graduate work towards a master's degree in genetics.

The Keim scholarship is awarded each year to a senior in the College who shows interest in genetics and plant breeding. A candidate must be capable of taking advanced work, have an interest in becoming a professional worker in the agronomy field, show good character and be in need of financial assistance.

A native of Lancaster County, Whited was graduated from Hickman High School in 1957. After attending Peru State Teachers College for two years, he enrolled at the University of Nebraska in the fall of 1959.

Second Day Of Bivouac Held For Army Reservists

Fort Carson, Colo. (AP) — Tuesday was the second day of bivouac for Omaha area Army reservists attending summer camp with the 89th division.

The Omahans are members of the 356th regiment of the first battalion. The battalion spent the day instructing and training in rifle squad formations and tactics.

Camouflage and concealment training was held for the men after supper Tuesday. Then they took a night compass march.

Senators Wrangle Over Nixon-Kennedy 'Lost Time'

Washington (UPI)—Sen. Stephen M. Young, (D-Ohio), touched off a rousing political row Tuesday by disclosing that he has been using a stop watch to clock Vice President Nixon on his job of presiding over the Senate.

Young told the Senate the Republican presidential nominee actually was in his chair on the Senate rostrum last week for only two hours, 55 minutes and 40 seconds.

Republicans Rally

Republicans quickly rallied to Nixon's defense. They praised his record as vice president and leveled new absentee charges against Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass), the Democrats' presidential nominee.

The Democrats just as quickly came to the defense of their man. They accused the Republicans of stalling during the post-convention session to prevent Kennedy from campaigning for the White House.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) capped the Democratic counter attack by chiding Young for bewailing Nixon's absence from the Senate. He said Nixon "has been here too much—7½ years too much."

Accusations Traded

Each camp accused the other of injecting politics into the session. Each also saw a need to end petty bickering and get down to work on legislation.

But before it was over, Kennedy was referred to as "Sonny Boy" and Nixon was described alternately as a free-rider on President Eisenhower's coattails in 1952 and 1956 and as the effective apostle of freedom in his trips abroad.

Young told the Senate he would not have pulled the stop watch on Nixon if Republicans had not needled Kennedy about his absences from the Senate. He said "what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander."

Brush Blaze Whips Town

Palermo, Calif. (AP) — Ten homes were leveled by a brush fire Tuesday night at the edge of this small northern California town.

The blaze leaped along with gusty winds to cover a path one mile wide and two miles long. A 30,000 gallon olive oil plant and a trailer court were engulfed.

No general evacuation was ordered but residents near the olive oil plant were removed as a precautionary measure. No deaths or serious injuries were reported.

Firemen from neighboring communities and state forest rangers joined in an effort to control the flames.

Industrial Production Steadies

...Reserve Board Says

Washington (AP) — Industrial production held steady in July after edging downward in June, the government reported Tuesday.

The Federal Reserve Board said its index of industrial output for July stood at 109% of the 1957 average. This meant that July production by mines, factories and utilities averaged 9% higher than in 1957. The index has fluctuate between 109 and a record 111 so far this year.

Summarizing last month's developments, the board said "industrial production, construction activity, employment conditions and retail sales generally continued to change little in July and early August."

It reported that production of consumer goods fell a bit last month while activity in business equipment hit record rates.

"Iron and steel production showed somewhat more than the usual sharp curtailment in July," the board said. It noted that steel mills were operating at 50% of capacity —30% below the 1957 level.

Labor disputes were cited as the reason for a 12% July curtailment in auto assemblies.

Good Day For City

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

With all the kidding aside, the City Council did the right thing in approving an ordinance requiring the licensing of cats. In many respects cats are as much of a nuisance as dogs for those who don't want them or don't like them. As a problem for the Humane Society cats run about one-third as much as dogs. The license fee for cats, too, will be less than that for dogs—hitting $1.50 a year as compared to $3 and $5 for dogs.

People might as well stop arguing about this subject and look at the facts in the case. Metropolitan areas have gotten to the point where the keeping of animals has become a privilege, not a right. This automatically stipulates certain responsibilities along with animal ownership and one of these responsibilities is protection of the rights and desires of others. People who don't want cats and dogs on their premises and don't want to be bothered with them on public streets and sidewalks should not be forced into it by those who do want the animals around. Those who want them are perfectly free to have them but only on their own property.

Privilege And Responsibilities

There is no question that enforcement of the cat licensing ordinance will be a problem because stray cats are simply harder to catch than dogs. They are more skeptical of strangers and do most of their running at large at nights. But the $1.50 fee will still be paid by enough people to provide compensation for work already being done by the Humane Society in keeping the feline population under control.

The question of money is no slight one in this situation. The Humane Society does an important and efficient job but it has been strapped for money for many years now. It is badly in need of major capital expenditures for physical plant improvements as well as hard pressed for meeting current operating expenditures. The cat licensing ordinance seems proper from every point of view.

Another step in the right direction was taken by the council when it introduced an ordinance requiring adequate barriers for parking facilities adjacent to public sidewalks. As the situation now stands there are many parking areas on which cars hang over into the sidewalk area. This is a blight upon the aesthetic appearance of an area but this is not the most important consideration. The important thing is that such parking can be a dangerous condition. Particularly is this true during school hours when little children are too inclined anyway to use the streets for walking.

Parking which encroaches upon the sidewalk forces people to use the street and serious accidents could result from this. And there is probably not one case out of 10 in which restrictions against such encroachments would in any way hamper the parking facilities. Most of this encroachment is simply a matter of no barriers and lack of sufficient consideration on the part of drivers. To install barriers at the sidewalk line would eliminate the problem and while this would cost property owners some money, it would be a small investment for the protection that would be afforded. It is hoped that the council goes on to pass this ordinance on third and final reading.

At the risk of being accused of attempting to establish a City Council admiration day, it might also be noted that the council is taking a wise look at an uncertain street improvement program in the Havelock area. The points at issue are Fremont St. and the Northeast Diagonal. The major question is whether they will eventually be one and the same or separate facilities.

If Fremont is to be the eastern extension of the diagonal, there would be wisdom in paving it to a major arterial width when and if any improvement is made in the street. But there is a question as to whether Fremont will, in fact, be such an extension and when this development might come about.

It is possible, as the City Engineering Department has suggested, that Seward would be a better eastern leg for the diagonal because of its limited residential development. Also, it could be many years in the future before the diagonal would be carried beyond 48th St. on either Fremont or Seward. Thus, to spend money on extra arterial width for Fremont at this time could be both premature and technically wrong. What might be more profitable for all concerned could be the application of all available funds on the diagonal work to 48th -- a program which is going to need every cent the city can dig up.

Timing Vital On Fremont

Obviously, the council is called upon in this matter to make a decision which will bear no fruit for some years but this is the kind of advance thinking which can save millions of dollars over a period of time. Keeping Fremont as a residential street could well be an efficient and practical answer to things.

The Senate Test

The stage is being set for a major battle on the floor of the Senate over the controversial question of medical aid to the aged. A Senate committee has sent to the floor a measure reported to be very similar to the document already approved by the House and advanced by the Eisenhower administration.

With details of the Senate committee bill still to be fully spelled out it would seem to have a number of points of conflict with the philosophy advanced by the so-called liberal wing of the Democratic party—a wing headed now by Sen. John F. Kennedy and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, Demo presidential and vice presidential nominees.

For one thing, the committee measure calls for joint federal and state aid with no connection to the Social Security system as is wanted by Kennedy. This is not just a difference of means with the same end in mind. It would mean that people living in different states would probably receive varying degrees of aid. Nebraska, for instance, may find it impossible to be as generous as some of her colleague states.

Also, if the Senate committee bill follows the Eisenhower pattern it has a minimum limit on which aid is based. This would mean that no aid would be given for medical care below a certain amount such as perhaps $200. It would be a little like $50 deductible automobile insurance only with a higher minimum. Nor is it known what other stipulations there might be to the committee bill which would seriously curtail its application.

What the committee bill is likely to be is lip service to the cause of medical aid for the aged but little by way of practical service and none at all in many cases. It will be fine for those who oppose the whole idea anyway but a cruel hoax upon a hopeful part of our society that might believe a serious problem for them has been solved. It would be better for the Senate to do nothing at all in this field than to rubber stamp the subterfuge committee measure.

Looks Like A Bonanza

Two Rivers State Park, newest and finest of the State Game Commission's recreational developments, will be opened officially Saturday.

A preview of the 933 acre development convinces one that the commission has staged a breakthrough to top level recreation and will win unanimous endorsement for its general recreational program.

Briefly the Twin Rivers Park is a wooded area about 15 miles west of Omaha, a few miles east of Wahoo and 40 miles north of Lincoln. It lies between the Elkhorn and Platte rivers and embraces seven ground water and spring fed lakes. It offers abundant fishing, bathing, picnicking facilities. There is a modern bath house to accommodate 400, and for those who prefer food from a good restaurant rather from a picnic grill, the accommodations for that are there, too.

A continuous restocking program on a put-and-take basis assures constant good fishing. There will be trout, bass, crappie, blue gills and other popular game fish.

In the fall when fishing ends and hunting begins the area will be ready with duck blinds.

It goes without saying that Two Rivers will receive heavy pressure. It is close to Nebraska's greatest density of population. It also goes without saying that the Game Commission has struck a solid blow in the interests of a booming recreation industry that will spread both by popular demand and by economic attractiveness to an increasing number of the state's many natural recreational sites.

When Nebraskans first view the Two Rivers Park they will agree that State Game Commissioner Mel Steen and his force have put Nebraska's show on the road and the future suddenly becomes unusually bright.

Southern Manuever

After such decisiveness for strong civil rights policies by the conventions of both parties it is interesting now that both the forces of Sen. Kennedy and Vice President Nixon are making special efforts to cultivate the South.

The inner reason is becoming more apparent.

Five southern states—Mississippi, South Carolina, Alabama and Georgia—permit the election of uncommitted electors. Four more—Louisiana, Texas, Virginia and Tennessee—permit state party committees to instruct the electors. The involved states have a combined electoral vote of 104. This is conceivably enough in a close election to keep either candidate from winning if the 104 votes were cast for a presently unknown. In that event the election would move into Congress for a decision. The Southern position in Congress, while not commanding, is stronger than it would be with the general electorate.

This is something that could give both candidates a nightmare, but that is about all. While the embattled Southerners are persistent resisters and well versed in the value of their weapons, the practical problem of holding all the voters in those states in line is immense. The last time the South seriously tried it was when the Dixiecrats tried to block President Truman in 1948. It was a strenuous effort, but it lacked unanimity and President Truman won anyway. This was a bad backset for the dissident Southerners and caused the death of the Dixiecrat movement. Under such circumstances it is doubtful that the South will risk another damaging loss of face. Its politically skillful leaders are more apt to be content with riding the threat for all it will gain in concessions without submitting it to its moment of truth.

Subversives Walk Off With U.S. Code

WASHINGTON—The Democrats are giving the Republicans an amazing break regarding those two "mathematicians" believed to have defected behind the Iron Curtain from the National Security Agency.

So far the Democrats have asked no embarrassing questions about what happened to this alarming breakdown of government security precautions. Both Kennedy and Johnson know the real truth of what happened, and it was not as inconsequential as the Pentagon spokesman tried to make it appear.

Real fact is that the two missing young men—Bernon F. Mitchell and William H. Martin—were top experts in cracking codes, and their disappearance has caused more consternation inside the administration than anything since the break-up of the summit conference.

The National Security Agency where they worked is the most sensitive agency of government. It has charge of the secret codes by which the United States transmits its most carefully-guarded messages abroad.

And as a result of the disappearance of the two men, every American code machine around the world has to be reset, with new codes carried by secret courier to embassies and consulates and military establishments in every country. This takes millions of dollars and weeks of work.

The unexplained question is: Why did the administration permit these two key men to slip off to Mexico? What happened to our much vaunted security system?

When Ike and Nixon first ran for election one of their main attacks on Truman and Acheson was laxness regarding pro-communists. Yet during all of Truman's nearly eight years in office not one American official defected behind the Iron Curtain.

Note—The FBI has picked up a report along the Cuban waterfront that two men answering the description of the two missing code experts boarded a Russian fishing trawler. They were in the company of three other well-dressed men who seemed to be Russians.

☆ ☆ ☆

Private word from the Vatican is that Pope John will throw the full weight of the Catholic church behind Cuban Catholics in their battle against Dictator Castro.

The Pope is reported ready to excommunicate Castro and all his top aides in order to stop communism from taking over Cuba. This is very important, since it was the church which toppled another dictator—Juan Peron—when he was riding high in Argentina.

On the other hand the Cuban revolution has some of the aspects of the Mexican revolution when the Mexican government in 1927 seized all the property of the Catholic church. In the end, it was the Mexican revolutionary party, not the church, which won.

Pope John was fully aware of, and approved of, the pastoral letter read in all Cuban churches the other day warning Castro of the danger of communism.

All Claim Part Of Space Capsule

WASHINGTON—All in a mystifying day on Capitol Hill . . .

The Discoverer capsule went into a strange political orbit. Speaker Sam Rayburn got tangled up with a lot of bull. Sen. John Kennedy kept 100 invited reporters awaiting him in vain.

And Sen. Lyndon Johnson smoked a peace pipe at his chamber desk with a fellow Texan — in full view of a thousand eyes.

The recovered nose cone of Discoverer XIII came to rest in a room on the Senate side of the Capitol. I wondered why the commotion in room F-41, and one peek inside gave the answer:

One by one, senators of the space committee were stepping up before the cameras to shake hands with the capsule — rather, they placed their palms on it—as the photographers' shutters clicked.

Obviously, this was for prestige purposes — similar to the mass G.O.P. delegate picture-snapping sessions with Richard Nixon in Chicago. The proud way the Democrats stood alongside the capsule, you'd have thought they rode it down out of orbit.

And it didn't seem to bother them one iota that President Eisenhower had posed with the capsule just as proudly earlier in the day—for the Republican cause.

☆ ☆ ☆

Now, to Sam Rayburn and his bull. Ole Sam, who turned from calculated grouch to gentleman of geniality after taking over the "Lyndon Johnson for anything" campaign, held a press conference.

Somebody asked him how long he would keep the House of Representatives in session.

"One day," Sam replied, lolling back in his fat, brown leather chair, "a farmer got tangled up with a bull that had a rope around his horns. A stranger came by and asked, 'Where are you going?' and the man replied: 'Don't ask me. Ask the bull'."

The bull, he said, was the United States Senate.

And on the second floor of the Senate, at the far end of the corridor, 100 reporters jammed the entrance to Sen. John Kennedy's new reception office.

"Mr. Kennedy will be available to the press at 12:45 p.m." the posted notice had read. It was now 1:15 p.m.

☆ ☆ ☆

Restlessly, the reporters had banged on the outer door to indicate to the senator's staff that they were there a-waiting. Each time somebody from inside would poke his head out. Finally an aide stepped out. He looked blankly at the angry congregation.

"What press conference?" said he. The reporters sighed and turned and slowly walked away . . .

MARQUIS CHILDS

Reds Will Use Powers

WASHINGTON — Enhanced by the presence of his wife, his father and mother, the drama of the trial of Francis Gary Powers is intended by the Soviet dramatists to harrow the nerves of humanity on both sides of the Iron Curtain.

It is being staged to show the iniquity of the West, and in particular of the United States, and conversely the righteousness and the innocence of Premier Nikita Khrushchev. The script must portray him as the injured party betrayed by the perfidious act of President Eisenhower in sending an espionage agent into the heart of the Soviet Union and then openly proclaiming the right to do so.

What makes the ordeal especially harrowing for Powers' fellow-countrymen is that he simply does not fit the pattern. In the dirty business of spying, the spy is traditionally a sinister and evil fellow capable of any kind of rascality or nastiness. But Powers is the boy next door who grew up with an adventurous love of flying.

His wife put it with great poignancy when she said that he should not be considered as a spy at all but as a kind of scout. This has overtones of the old West and the Indian scouts ever alert to the threat of Indian depredations. Her remark implies an innocence and even a sense of righteousness that may be widely reflected here at home.

Emotions to one side, the Central Intelligence Agency has been devoting hundreds of man-hours — skilled, expert man-hours—to an appraisal of the U-2 disaster and the possible consequences of the trial. Powers worked for the CIA in the numerous flights that he made over the Soviet Union.

While the damage done by the U-2 episode and the confused and fumbling way in which it was handled were obvious enough, in the CIA reckoning the immediate harm to the western alliance were relatively small. One reason was the way in which Khrushchev overplayed his hand. Yet it is here that there is the greatest concern over the trial.

So far as can be determined, Powers has told just about everything he knew of the operation in which he was involved, and he has told it in a straightforward fashion. There is little factual information that he could add unless—and this is the big unknown—he has been subjected to some form of brainwashing. The top appraisers in the CIA have no way of knowing whether in the nearly three and a half months he has been imprisoned, this has happened.

The damage he could do, under such circumstances, is with respect to the use of bases on the territory of America's allies. A major Soviet objective in the spy trial is to contribute to the weakening of the alliance by intimidating the allies with bases from which American planes operate. Powers flew from Pakistan and his destination was a base in Norway. What he may have to say from the witness stand about operations from these and other allied bases will be of paramount interest to those who have been directing the chess game in which pilot Powers was the pawn.

The belief is that Powers will be given, instead of the death sentence, a fairly long prison term. This will keep him alive, to put it in the cold-blooded language of the intelligence business, as a bargaining counter. Conceivably, he would be exchanged for a Soviet spy at some future date.

But there is one important qualifier to this belief. If the Soviet fear of espionage, and above all of aerial photography, is as great as it seems to be, then Powers will be shot as a warning to others that they will meet a similar fate if they are caught in the act. This would be considered — and it is by no means excluded — as a deterrent for the future.

The Powers trial fits into the aggressive campaign of propaganda projected for the months ahead. It is being taken for granted, after the recent hints dropped in Moscow, that Khrushchev will head up the Soviet delgation to the United Nations General Assembly. He will argue the Soviet disarmament case with the vigor and vociferousness of which he is capable.

From the U.N. he will go to Cuba and perhaps also to Mexico. Against the Cuban sounding board, he will reiterate the themes of "imperialism" and "colonialism" and pledge anew Soviet assistance to the Castro regime in its struggle, as depicted by Communist propaganda, with the tyrannical giant to the north.

For western listeners with any understanding or sophistication, this will be the old hackneyed exaggeration and falsehood. Khrushchev will again be overplaying his hand. But for less knowledgeable audiences in large parts of the world, its effect may be much greater than we here realize.

BOB CONSIDINE

Mail Is More Than Bills

NEW YORK — The mail was up around chin level, after being away so long, so we stabbed open a few letters. They can be an education:

There was a clipping from the New Orleans Times Picayune which headed a column I wrote about our 29th wedding anniversary with this line: "Love Letter Celebrates 29 Years of Married Life." The same story in the Omaha World Herald was headed, "Love Letter From an Aging Slob." Oh, well, they know me better in Omaha.

F. H. Newcombe, a Canadian serving in Rangoon, Burma, with the Food and Agriculture Organization of U.N., sent us from that vast distance a note deploring the antics of demonstrators at our conventions ". . . particularly now when the U.S. stands in undisputed leadership of the free world, I felt that these infantile antics failed utterly to add to the dignity of a great nation, and, in fact, have the opposite effect in the eyes of the rest of the world." Hear! Hear!

☆ ☆ ☆

Brig. Gen. Rothwell Hutton Brown (ret.), son of the great old Hearst political writer George Rothwell Brown, who died at 80 while covering the Republican convention, writes from Washington, "just to keep the record straight, dad was present at the 1932 convention (the obits said he missed that one) in which Mr. Garner was nominated for vice president, which means he never missed a convention beginning with 1908.

"The actual facts are that dad was working in the background for Mr. Hearst Sr., to secure the nomination for Mr. Garner. The actual acceptance by Mr. Garner of the vice presidential nomination was made to my mother, who finally got Mr. Garner on the telephone at a hotel here in Washington and then relayed Mr. Garner's acceptance to dad and Mr. Hearst by telephone at the convention. This fact has never been publicized."

Headquarters, Strategic Air Command, Offutt AFB, Neb., informs us, "Minuteman, a solid-fuel ICBM with a range of approximately 6,300 miles, is scheduled to become operational in 1962. SAC has two plans for protecting its "Minuteman" force from destruction in a surprise attack. A large number of the missiles will be placed in underground concrete launch silos which provide protection from all but a direct hit during an enemy attack. Others will be placed on specially constructed railway launch cars and be moved here and there in the country."

A Jersey City lady writes, "in regard to your remark about the elderly Goldwater rooter you interviewed in Chicago I noted your line, '. . . and the old fellow went his way along a street of rolled up sleeves and cotton dresses . . .' I suppose your mother arrived in this country from Ireland in a pure silk dress and your father in a cutaway suit with a high silk hat to match. My mother landed wearing a shawl and my father was in a cheap suit with a derby on his head. No doubt you would call us 'Cotton-pickingshanty Irish'."

Not unless I wanted to get my silk block knocked off.

"Why don't you tell the people the truth about Russian space claims?" a man scrawls from Milwaukee. "They have never sent a satellite into orbit. They never hit the moon, and sent long range missiles into the Pacific. They don't have the A-bomb or H-bomb. Tell the truth! Tell the truth about where all our money has gone, too. The Mafia's got it!" Hmmm . . . Winchell should hear about that last exposure.

"The toughest problem confronting the younger generation today is the older generation," Joe E. Lewis writes, between races. But not all the older generation, Joe. Here's a note from a friend: "Dear Bob: I owe you thanks for a fan telegram and friendly birthday wishes. The eighty-two-year-old is grateful. H. V. Kaltenborn."

Ken King, a New Yorker, pinpoints the reason why the Hollywood actors and actresses looked so ludicrous on the convention platforms: "It is just that we can never associate them with reality. They exist in a sort of imaginative realm, or dream world. They should stay there." So git back there in the celluloid woodwork, you crazy kids.

Your Four Cents Worth

Teen-Ager Speaks

Lincoln, Neb.

Sen. John F. Kennedy will be the next president of the United States. I think the people will not let American youth, religion or any other reason stand in the way of getting the best man for president.

The religion of Sen. Kennedy should have no bearing on his governing powers as president and I think he will keep this country the No. 1 nation in military power and standard of living.

The Republicans claim that Sen. Kennedy is too young for such a high office, but that is exactly what we need in these difficult times. We cannot afford another veto president. If the GOP wonders where the Democratic party is going to get the money to do what Kennedy wishes to do it can be assured that he will find ways and means of taxing those who so far have paid little or no taxes and will put many idle people to work by making new business and more defense.

Parity for the farmers will bring much more business into the small towns as well as the large cities and the farmers will at long last get proper pay for their efforts.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson, the next vice president, has a world of experience. He will help the party especially in the South.

THE GARBAGE MAN'S FRIEND IS DEAD

Chicago (UPI) — Charlie Weber, burgomeister of the 45th ward and champion of the garbage man, died Tuesday and Chicago probably won't ever see his like again.

Weber's death was tragic and strange, in contrast to a life filled with beer, jokes, and the old-fashioned machine politicking which has become a dying art.

Weber, 66, was found sprawled on the bedroom floor of his home. The body of his wife, Dorothy, 62, lay beside him. They had been asphyxiated, probably from the exhaust fumes of Mrs. Weber's baby blue Cadillac parked in an adjacent garage.

Forgotten

Weber had used the car the night before and had apparently forgotten to turn off the ignition. The gas tank was empty and the motor was still warm. The fumes could easily have entered the home and Weber apparently collapsed trying to get from his bed to a window.

A crowd of 1,500 persons gathered outside the yellow brick home after a family friend, Brother Charles McBride of the Holy Cross Brothers, Clinton, Mich., entered the home and discovered the bodies.

Top echelon politicians of both political parties were among the crowd. Some of them were weeping.

Strangers

Tears and public sorrow had been strangers to Charlie Weber in a career which sprang from the days when Bathhouse John Coughlan and Hinky Dink Kenna ruled Chicago, spanned the boozy days of prohibition, and included 30 years in the state legislature and 8 years as alderman of the heavily Germanic 45th ward on Chicago's Northwest Side.

Weber had practically inherited the ward from his alderman father. He grew to power with the likes of Ed Kelly, Tony Cermak and Paddy Nash, the founders of the Chicago Democratic machine as it is now known. He was reputedly one of the most prosperous bootleggers in the neighborhood during the 20's and in latter days his bosom buddy was Mathias (Paddy) Bauler, a saloon-keeping alderman who likes to say "Chicago ain't ready for reform."

Weber, an alderman to his death, was also the friend of children and garbage collectors.

In two weeks, he was to have footed the bill for his annual "kiddies' day" at Chicago's Riverview amusement park. As symbol of Weber's political influence, the honored guest was to be Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, Democratic vice presidential nominee. Weber was generally known to pass out $1,000 in small change to the youngsters on "kiddies day."

Clean Knights

Every year he would hold a Christmas party for the garbage men of his ward, telling them they were "Knights of cleanliness." Weber was a fanatic about clean streets. He had his own fleet of mechanical street sweepers and hired his own corps of garbagemen when necessary to keep the 45th clean.

Possibly the only class of people he hated were dog owners who let their pets run loose, thereby imperiling civic sanitation.

Stout, jaunty, impeccably dressed and fiercely proud of his German origins, Weber's lifelong motto was "if you can't stand the heat get out of the kitchen."

His close friend, Alderman John J. Hoellen, said Tuesday night "we certainly hate to see him go."

Pledged, Unpledged Electors' Slates Named By Miss. Dems

Jackson, Miss. (AP) — Insurgent Democrats knocked down loyalist opposition Tuesday and named two slates of party presidential electors — pledged and unpledged. They also rejected both national party platforms and candidates.

The action, in a recalled state convention, made Mississippi the first Deep South state to set up a slate of independent electors as a possible bargaining point in the electoral college. Mississippi hopes to swap votes for civil rights concessions.

Gov. Ross Barnett had campaigned on a program of Southern unity, but the idea did not materialize at the national convention.

Loyalists at the state convention — outnumbered from the start — objected to listing the independents as Democrats on grounds the party name should be reserved for loyal party members.

But House Speaker Walter Sillers of Bolivar County, resolutions committee chairman, said he interpreted the law to mean every political party could name a pledged and an unpledged slate.

The only mention of National Democratic Candidates John Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson — described as loyal Americans by Rep. Merle Palmer of Harrison-Jackson counties — brought mixed boos and applause.

Chairman Bidwell Adam of the State Democratic Executive Committee remained silent during the open part of the recalled convention.

Monday night, he told a pre-convention meeting that the insurgents had guaranteed the loyalists a slate of pledged electors on the ballot, indicating a fight during the campaign.

Among the reasons the convention rejected the national party platforms were these planks:

1. Elimination of the states' right to work laws, segregation and national immigration laws, and poll taxes and literacy tests.

2. Creation of a fair employment practices commission and world court.

3. Support of Negro sit-ins in the South.

Kennedy To Visit Truman, Ag Meet Both On Sunday

Washington (AP)—A scheduled Saturday Senate session will force Sen. John F. Kennedy to make his visit with former President Harry S. Truman and attend the Des Moines, Iowa, agricultural conference on one day—Sunday, Aug. 21.

Kennedy's press secretary, Pierre Salinger, told newsmen the Democratic presidential nominee plans to leave here early Sunday morning in his own plane for Kansas City, Mo. He will go on by automobile to Independence, Mo., for about an hour's visit with Truman to work out details of Truman's participation in the fall campaign.

Kennedy then will fly to Des Moines to join Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex), the vice presidential nominee, who also is going to Des Moines Sunday, and receive reports of meetings the previous day of farm and legislative leaders.

Back To Legit

New York (AP) — Broadway's Mansfield Theater, which has been occupied by CBS television programs for 10 years, reverts to the legitimate theater in the fall. "Vintage '60," a stage revue to be presented by David Merrick in association with Zev Bufman, George Shaff and Max Perkins, will open at the Mansfield. Michael Myerberg, owner of the Mansfield, will spend $200,000 refurbishing it.

Lancaster Board Has Closed-Door Session To Discuss Salary Boosts

By Del Harding

The County Board met behind closed doors Tuesday for 4 hours and discussed possible salary raises for county employes, but adjourned its weekly meeting without taking any action on the matter.

Commissioner Kenneth Bourne reported after the meeting that the board will meet again later this week for more discussion. But he said indications are the board will grant some raises now rather than wait until after a professional study of courthouse jobs is made.

At the Aug. 9 meeting when the board adopted its 1960-61 budget there was talk of having a job duties survey made before granting any salary raises.

Persons At Talks

During its private discussions the board summoned School Supt. Glenn Turner, County Atty. Elmer Scheele, County Engineer Louis Weaver, Relief Director Phyllis Samuelson and Sheriff Merle Karnopp for discussions about salaries.

The board recessed its weekly meeting at 10:30 a.m. and then went behind closed doors until noon. They resumed their discussions at 1:30 and emerged at 4 p.m. to formally adjourn the meeting.

Most county office heads have asked $10 to $25 monthly raises for their employes.

The board included money for raises in the new budget—which calls for a 4.5 mill levy—but did not approve any individual raises.

Comedian Injured In Stage Performance

Los Angeles (UPI)—Comedian Joe E. Brown broke his shoulder in the opening night performance of a "Show Boat" revival here, it was disclosed Tuesday.

Brown, who plays Captain Andy in the Los Angeles Philharmonic version of the famed Jerome Kern musical, will be replaced by Andy Devine. A spokesman for the philharmonic said Brown, 68, hoped to return to the show in 3 or 4 days.

Here's Your Echo Moon Timetable

Washington (AP)—Echo I, a silver balloon taller than a 10-story building, yet with a skin thinner than an eggshell, continues to criss-cross the sky as a star-like light several times nightly.

Orbiting 1,000 miles above the earth, the satellite is remaining inflated although it may have been punctured by many micro-meteorites since its launching last Friday.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration gives this timetable for the satellite's appearances in the Lincoln area for Thursday and Friday:

Seen Any Old Whales?

Sydney, Austrialia (AP)—Sydney University zoology Prof. W. H. Dawbin, a whale expert, is beginning to wonder if old whales fade away like old soldiers. "I have studied all aspects of whale life from the Antarctic to the Artic," he said, "but I have never come across an old whale or met anyone who has."

SURVEY ON TO SOLVE SEWAGE DUMPING PROBLEM

A survey is being made of Nebraska cities dumping raw sewage into open streams to determine what steps are being taken to correct the situation, T. A. Filipi, state sanitation engineer, said Tuesday.

Filipi said purpose of the survey is to try to determine what program the State Water Pollution Control Council should follow in enforcing the 1957 Water Pollution Control Act.

Nestled in the act is a loophole which says a town discharging sewage into streams in excess of the classification or standard will not be in violation if the town is collecting a sinking fund by means of a special two mill levy or raising a similar amount annually by other means to provide funds necessary for a sewage treatment plant.

Other Means

Other means could include a sewer fee which many cities are using.

The act also says that if at the end of 25 years the money raised is not enough to build the plant, then the money accumulated is to go into the town's general fund.

Filipi called the law one of "frustration" because the "fact that a city is collecting money for a plant isn't going to kill germs in a river or allow someone to swim in a filthy stream."

He objected to the law because it does not actually say a city in violation has to build the plant. It only has to raise money for one.

Controversy Rises

Controversy has arisen over efforts of the council to set tentative dates for cities to construct sewage plants.

Filipi has said authority to set the dates comes from the 1957 law.

The survey, in the form of a letter, asks the 80 towns in violation if they are already accumulating money for the purpose of constructing treatment plants.

So far Filipi has received 26 answers. Nine cities said they are not providing money and 17 said they were raising money either through a mill levy or a sewer fee.

Filipi said he doesn't intend to "get tough" with those cities unwilling to raise the money in violation of the act, but he said he was just trying to warn them of the vital need for treatment plants for raw untreated sewage being dumped into their streams.

Stan Delaplane's POSTCARD

You probably have a watch. Or, you may not need a watch — maybe you hate watches; you are neurotic and watches remind you of impending time.

Even so, the chances are that you will wind up buying a watch. If you come to Switzerland.

This morning we went over to Bucherer's elegant gold-and-glass salon to see what makes the watch business tick. Just to show you how these things creep up on you: We bought $300 worth of tickers before we finished the interview.

☆ ☆ ☆

Bucherer's has main offices in Lucerne and operates five branches. Some of these are open only two months of the high seasons — Lugano in the summer, St. Moritz in the winter.

In four months of intensive operation, the firm sells 12,000 watches over the counter. This is not a great deal in Switzerland's watch industry —Omega alone sells 1,000,000 watches a year throughout the world.

But Bucherer, dealing directly with the tourist, seemed likely for our story. We asked Mr. Bruno Binda to name the five best watches in the world. Not surprisingly, they were all Swiss.

☆ ☆ ☆

Not in this order, but in the top class," said Mr. Binda, "the best watches are Patek-Philippe, International, Audemars Piguet, Vacherona & Constantin — I would also include Rolex." (Bucherer is agent for Rolex.)

"I would include in the top class, a watch you don't hear of very often. Piaget. Yes, I would say Piaget is perhaps top of the top class."

Mr. Binda then got out a wafer-thin bold Piaget.

"It is not only thin — there is a great vogue on thin watches at present—is also automatic which has not been accomplished by other top makers of the thin watch. This watch sells for $600 in Switzerland. In New York, I think you would pay $1,000."

"How about the watch in the more popular price range, Mr. Binda?"

"The most popular price range here in our Lugano store is $25 to $30. Our tourist business in the summer is mainly British, German and Dutch. To sell the high-priced watches, you must have an American clientele."

☆ ☆ ☆

"What makes a watch expensive? Is it the number of jewels?"

"Jewels cost only a few cents," said Mr. Binda. "Actually 17 jewels are all that are necessary in a good watch. Some have 21 and 25. But it is not important. The jewels are merely hard bearing points where parts rub together and could wear out.

"What makes a watch expensive is the case and the styling. If you want a solid gold case, you must pay for it. If you get a good automatic watch in a stainless steel case, it should cost you $30. If it has better styling, $40. If you have a gold case, $100 or $150."

"What about the advertising of shockproof and anti-magnetic?"

"All watches are anti-magnetic and most of them are shockproof."

☆ ☆ ☆

If you want to know whether your watch is truly gold, you can look at the little mark with a magnifying glass. Swiss 18-carat gold is marked with a tiny head of Athena. If it is 14-carat, it has a tiny squirrel. (Gold-plated watches are not marked at all.)

While Mr. Binda demonstrated these various watches, we kept putting some aside. We didn't need watches. But they were awfully pretty and you never know. Christmas coming and all that.

"Mr. Binda, if the $30 stainless steel watch has the same works as the $150 gold watch, why do people ever buy the expensive gold watch?"

Frankly, said Mr. Binda, he didn't know. "The British buy stainless steel. The Americans buy the gold. A watch is a very personal thing — it is a matter of taste."

Mr. Binda, himself, wears a gold watch. But he said he felt it was necessary in his position as manager. Also, he got it wholesale.

Used By Greeks

Athens (AP) — Actors in the ancient Greek theater made extensive use of masks to denote the age, moods and characters they were performing. The masks were made of linen, cork or wood. The masks became a sort of megaphone that gave an actor's voice increased volume. Wigs were used in the ancient Roman theater. White hair meant age, black hair meant youth, red hair meant slaves.

Communist-Free Cabinet Awaits Laos Assembly O.K.

Vientiane, Laos (UPI) — Neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma formed a Communist-free cabinet Tuesday and placed it before the National Assembly. Quick approval was expected at Wednesday's session.

Prince Souvanna, who negotiated a truce with the Communist-led Pathet Laos rebels when he served as premier in the past, did not include any members of the ousted pro-Western cabinet of Premier Tiao Somsanith in the government.

Souvanna took the key ministries of defense and foreign affairs for himself and in a gesture of conciliation to left-wing elements named Quinim Pholsena, president of the Leftist Peace Party, as minister of interior.

In the general elections last April all the Peace Party candidates were defeated by candidates of the Somsanith government overthrown last week by a military coup d'etat. Quinim himself was defeated in his home district of Pakse by an overwhelming margin.

While Phouma was holding last minute consultations on the cabinet, paratroopers of Capt. Kong Le's 2nd Battalion—who brought about the downfall of the Somsanith government—still were on guard throughout Vientiane.

Formation of a Communist-free cabinet appeared to be in strict compliance with the revolutionary group's policy of firm neutralism and a departure from earlier expectations of a softer line toward Communism.

Broadway Parade For Lafayette Is Recalled

New York (AP) — The 135th anniversary of the first lower Broadway parade to salute a notable was observed Tuesday at Battery Park where such parades start.

The first parade, predecessor to today's ticker tape motorcade from the Battery to City Hall, honored Marquis de Lafayette, French hero of the American Revolution.

C&NW Railroad Car Destroyed By Blaze

Elgin—A Chicago and North Western Railroad tool car was destroyed by fire near here. Some tools were salvaged, but the car was considered a total loss.

Sparks from the diesel crane unit which was pulling the tool car and a caboose were believed to have started the fire.

More than 45 million dollars worth of property and crops were destroyed in the Mississippi River flood of 1927.

New Kinney Shoe Store At 51st And O

City Again Has Kinney Store

Kinney's shoe store is returning to Lincoln.

Over 20 years ago, Kinneys had a shoe store in downtown Lincoln.

It had operated in Lincoln many years before it closed.

Now Kinneys is moving into Lincoln again in a new location at 51st and O.

The new store is the 530th Kinney store now operating in the United States. There are two Kinney stores in Omaha.

Warehouse Blaze Put Under Control

Kansas City, Kan. (AP) — Fire broke out in an oil firm warehouse Tuesday and threatened for a time to explode a large railroad fuel tank car nearby.

One fireman was overcome by fumes and hospitalized. Another collapsed and was treated at the scene, in the Kansas river industrial area between the two Kansas Citys.

The burning warehouse of the Inter-State Oil Co. and its contents sent up a dense cloud of orange and black smoke.

Firemen later reported they had the flames under control. A heavy rainshower swept through, helping them.

Christian High

South Bend, Ind. (AP)—Plans are underway for establishment of a "Christian high school" here by a group of conservative Protestant churches, with classes expected to begin this fall.

Religious Cult Finally Ends Shelter Stay

Benson, Ariz. (AP) — More than 100 members of a small religious sect emerged Tuesday from underground bomb shelters in which they took refuge 42 days ago.

After leaving their basement havens, the cultists gathered at their small cement-block church on the outskirts of this southern Arizona town to give thanks for being spared what they feared was a prophesied nuclear attack.

At the time the sect went underground, one leader said: "Civil defense is the Noah's ark of today. Like Noah, we can take shelter for 40 days and 40 nights."

Throughout their vigil, lawsuits, arrests and desertions tested the faith of members of the Full Gospel Assembly.

In ones and twos, more than 35 persons filtered out of the cellars in the last 6 weeks.

Kidnap charges against two leaders were dropped July 16 after the wife and two children of a non-member emerged from the shelters.

Ten days before, a lawsuit seeking payment of an $11,802 grocery bill was dismissed in Superior Court at Tucson after the Assembly paid it.

A Bible printed in 1810 is known as the "Ears to Ear Bible" because it quotes Matthew 13:43 as "Who hath ears to ear, let him hear."

Kinney's New Store To Open

Thursday At 51st And O

Kinney's shoes, in a new glass, brick and timbered building at 51st and O Sts., officially opens for business Thursday.

Holcomb

Ceremonial ribbon cutting is scheduled at noon.

The store, which says it stresses "self-selection" as a merchandising feature, is the 530th Kinney's establishment in a national chain going into 47 of the 50 states.

After choosing a shoe style customers will be helped in selecting the proper size.

Handbags and hoisery are also sold to complement the shoes.

There will be 8 full time and 22 part-time employes in the store which will be open 6 days a week from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., according to the store manager, Gene Holcomb.

Holcomb was formerly head of Kinney's Merle Hays Shopping Center store in Des Moines.

The new Lincoln store covers 10,000 square feet and has a 120 foot glass front to view the interior.

There is more than an acre of free parking around the store.

At the opening, Thursday, and continuing through Friday and Saturday, free balloons and candy will be given to children. There will also be entertainment.

Oral Arguments On Dosek Case Are Postponed

Oral arguments which had been scheduled for Wednesday on a request for reconsideration of the suspension of Edward A. Dosek's insurance license have been postponed.

Wayne Douce, attorney for the state Insurance Dept. said Lincoln attorney Joseph Ginsburg, who represents Dosek, asked for the postponement because Ginsburg would be out of town on vacation. No new date has been set, Douce said.

Insurance Director William Grubbs last month ordered that Dosek's license not be renewed. A motion to reconsider subsequently was filed by Ginsburg.

Dosek, of Lincoln, is the Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor.

Condemnation Hearing Set

The City Council has set Sept. 12 condemnation hearings on 5 properties reported to be in a dilapidated and dangerous condition by the city building inspector.

The properties are a house at 874 So. 45th; a garage at 6642 Morrill; a house at 5011 Prescott; a house at 1327 No. 22nd, and a garage at the rear of 128 No. 19th.

Owners are being notified to show cause why the structures shouldn't be condemned as recommended.

Norfolk Firm Incorporates

Rock Cove, Inc., of Norfolk, formed to develop and maintain a recreation site and related enterprises, filed its articles of incorporation Tuesday with the secretary of state.

Authorized capitalization is $25,000 and incorporators include Joel A. Gillespie and Francis Martin of Norfolk, and James F. Kelly Jr. of Omaha.

Other new corporations, with authorized capitalization and incorporators:

Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of North Platte; $100,000; Cheney L. Plummer and Claire Plummer of North Platte, and Forrest F. Belieu and Susie V. Belieu of Sidney.

Cozi-Homes, Inc., Grand Island; $100,000; James F. Larson, Magdalene A. Larson and Bob D. Cover, all of Grand Island.

$97,000 Contract

Omaha (AP) — District Army Engineers Tuesday announced that the Winger Construction Co., Ottumwa, Ia., has been awarded a $97,000 contract for construction of process gas facility changes at the Atlas missile complex near Warren Air Force Base, Cheyenne, Wyo. Winger was the lowest of 3 bidders.

AT LEAST 4 RECORDS SET—

AF Captain Drops 19 Miles With Chute

... Kittenger Asked Lord, 'Take Care Of Me'

Holloman Air Force Base, N.M. (AP)—A slender, sandy-haired Air Force captain asked the Lord to "take care of me," then made history's longest jump Tuesday, nearly 103,000 feet.

Joseph Kittinger, 31, of Orlando, Fla., jumped from a balloon high over the New Mexico desert "and when the parachute opened, I thanked Him (the Lord) for doing so," he told newsmen later.

His historic leap set at least 4 records in America's space probe program.

Afterward, he flew to Los Angeles from Holloman Air Force Base for a news conference. He was greeted at International Airport by test Pilot Joe Walker who flew the rocket ship X-15 2,196 mph last week, and was at the airport Tuesday practicing in a simulated X-15 cockpit.

They talked shop.

Very Dark Blue Spy

Kittinger said of his parachute plunge:

"I was falling on my back. It was very quiet, very still. I had very little velocity. It seemed that the balloon was drifting up, away from me into a very dark blue sky. But of course it was I who was falling away from the balloon."

During the 6 minutes he was in the balloon gondola at maximum altitude he noticed the sky was very dark—"dark enough to see stars, I thought. But for some reason I saw none."

Men have gone higher than Kittinger did, but in aircraft. Only last week the X-15 powered its way to more than 136,000 feet above the earth. The X-2 and F-104 aircraft also have gone above 103,000 feet.

Kittinger came through the flight practically unscathed. The only injury was a swelled right hand, suffered when a pressure glove malfunctioned at 50,000 feet. It returned to normal size after his descent.

Rulo Span Debt Reduced $22,000

Falls City (UPI)—Richardson County's bonded debt against the Rulo Bridge over the Missouri River will be reduced by $22,000 on Oct. 1.

The payment will reduce the outstanding debt against the bridge to $303,000.

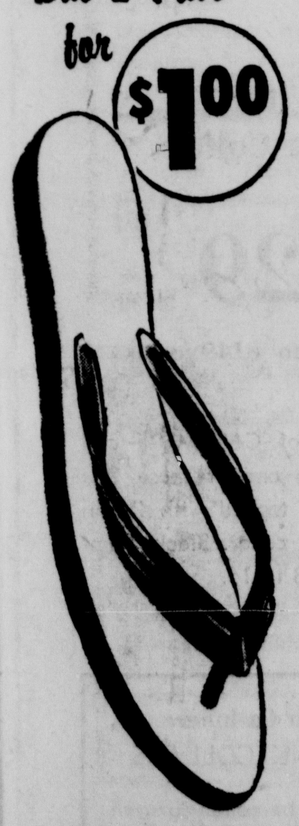

The original cost of the span was $750,000, approximately 40% of which was absorbed by the federal government.

The original cost of the bond issue was $435,000.

Tie That Binds

Oklahoma City (AP)—Young people, with their urge to band together and conform, like rock 'n roll music because it gives them "something in common to cling to," says the Rev. C. L. Bass, a Baptist composer and minister. "I think church music could become the common band that binds young people together as much as rock 'n roll. The main reason it hasn't is a shortage of enthusiastic choir directors."

Dear Abby—

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: We gave our 18-year-old son a car for high school graduation, and now he is out dating every night. He never cared much for girls, but lately he has been staying out until 3 and 4 every morning.

We know that daughters are expected to bring home their dates so their parents can meet them. But is this true of sons? I keep telling my husband that "nice" girls couldn't stay out that late. My husband says I am "over protective".

Am I wrong to be concerned? Why don't parents of boys have the same right to meet the company their sons keep as have parents of girls?

CONCERNED MOTHER

DEAR CONCERNED: They have. Find out who the girls are. You are wise to be suspicious of girls who have as much freedom and as little supervision as these young ladies (?) appear to have.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: We have neighbors (directly across the street) who have two nice new cars. So have we. The lady who works for them drives a beat-up old jalopy. Instead of parking it in front of THEIR house, she parks it in front of OURS all day. This has gone on for almost two years. but we resent it. Do you think they are too proud to have that car parked in front of their place? We don't know if it is just a nervy trick or if they really don't think anything of it. We hardly know them. Is it worth mentioning? In case you think I'm jealous, I have help, too.

KEEP ME ANONYMOUS

DEAR ANONYMOUS: You can solve your problem by asking the driver of the "jalopy" to park it by the home in which she works. Why involve the neighbors?

DEAR ABBY: What should I do about my 17-year-old sitter? She's sat with my children for two years and I thought her to be an adorable, upright girl. She asked permission to have a few friends in while she sat, and I agreed. Soon the "few friends" grew in number until she was having parties of 12 or more boys and girls.

My husband's liquor started to disappear. Things came to a head when we came home at 1 a.m. and found her so drunk she could hardly talk. Not wanting to return her home in that condition, I phoned her mother and asked if she could stay all night. The next morning I scolded and lectured her and she cried and begged me not to tell her parents. I kept quiet. Tonight she came to sit, and I smelled liquor on her breath, so I sent her home and said we changed our minds about going out.

NOW, should we tell her parents?

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Absolutely! You do this girl no favor by covering up for her. Her parents should know. Tell them at once.

☆ ☆ ☆

CONFIDENTIAL TO UPSET MOTHER: The least lovable child needs the most love. Force yourself.

ASK—

Dorothy Draper

Somehow when we think of real comfort and room to relax we automatically picture a house. The other day I saw gracious living personified in an apartment consisting of about three rooms.

It was in a new apartment house overlooking the East River. The entrance was charming and then upstairs in the apartment I was impressed with the delightful layout and supreme comfort. There was a television set hidden in the big breakfront in the bedroom (this could be turned on and off from the bed.) Another set was concealed behind doors of the built-in bar in the living room. A sofa-bed took care of the guest who had missed the last train.

Two chairs for comfortable sprawling were placed at the long window which gave a spectacular view of the bridge and when night came the bridge looked like a necklace with its garland of shimmering lights tossed over the water.

Loads of closet space, two baths, a small dining alcove, off of the living room . . . the whole thing was so well laid out, I have seen large houses that could have taken a lesson from those few rooms.

Moral: It isn't what you have that counts, it's how do you use it.

Mrs. E. J. M. asks:

"Am seeking a color for walls and woodwork in our living and dining rooms and hallway (which goes to 3rd floor.) Would like all walls the same color. House is very old with numerous doorways, deep windows, etc. Have dark red oriental rugs, plus mustard colored Victorian sofa and black rocker. Would you recommend off-white or beige walls? If so, what color on the woodwork as we definitely don't want white?"

Dear Mrs. E. J. M.:

If you use white for the walls, make it a real snow-white, (no off-white in-between) with woodwork in the ripe red of your Oriental rugs. Or a rich new color for both walls and woodwork would be Absinthe green — which would look most attractive with the colors in your Oriental rug and your mustard sofa.

Mrs. M. R. asks:

"In two bedrooms, painted sunbeam yellow, in my shore cottage, I have metal beds and old bureaus. I do not feel at the present that I can replace these. What color could I paint beds and bureaus?"

Dear Mrs. M. R.:

You have several choices — a shiny patent-leather-black, a glossy white, or a yellow to match your walls. If you choose the yellow for a monotone effect, you'll need lots of accents in black, some orange and a spot of turquoise for a shock touch.

Mrs. A. F. C. asks:

"Are sliding doors available in glass?"

Dear Mrs. A. F. C.:

Yes indeed, and they can create a whole new world either between rooms or as part of an outer wall.

Opening lead — king of clubs.

When a good player makes a mistake, that's news, but let him play hand after hand, day after day, without making a mistake, and somehow his name escapes the headlines.

So if from time to time in this column we point to a case where Homer nods, it is only that the item is newsworthy in addition to being instructive. But where credit is due for exceptionally fine play, we are pleased to report that also.

Declared in the accompanying hand was Meyer Schleifer, West Coast star. He got doubled in three hearts when the deal was played during Los Angeles Bridge Week. West led the A-K of clubs and shifted to the singleton diamond.

Schleifer took the queen and king with the ace and made the first of two crucial plays by leading a low heart towards dummy. West, hoping East could win the trick, made the mistake of playing low and dummy was in with the nine.

Declarers then led the queen of spades. When East played low, Schleifer rightly decided that West had to have the king as part of his double. He therefore refused to finesse and went up with the ace. (Had he finessed, the contract would have been defeated by a spade return.)

Schleifer exited with a spade and West was on lead and helpless. Out of spades and diamonds, and unable to afford a heart lead, West led a club. This gave declarer the opportunity to discard his diamond loser as dummy ruffed the club.

The rest of the play was easy. Declarer cashed the A-K of hearts and then continued to lead spades until West ruffed and South could claim the balance. Schleifer made three, losing a spade, a heart, and two clubs.

Of course, the defense could have done better. As early as trick two, West should have led a diamond. He could later have put East in to cash the diamond.

But the big point is that Schleifer gave West a chance to go wrong on the early heart play and then followed it up later by refusing the spade finesse.

The Talk Around Town

—No portending shadows of the usual mid-August slump as yet. As a matter of fact business is booming in the social world, and life seems to be just one happy arrival after another.

Take today and tomorrow, for example. This evening Capt. William Ludwick, USN, will be arriving in Lincoln to spend 10 days as the guest of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Ludwick.

Capt. Ludwick has just returned from a three years tour of duty in England where he was attached to the American Embassy in London. His next assignment, we hear, is at Camp Lejeune, N.C.

* * *

—So much for Wednesday and on to Thursday when Mrs. John Folsom and her son, John, arrived from Muskegon, Mich., also to be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ludwick, and to visit with her brother, Capt. Ludwick.

* * *

—House guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Gelber last week are their daughter, Mrs. Jerry Dosek and her sons, Bob and Michael of Prairie Village, Kan., formerly of Lincoln. Mr. Dosek arrived Friday for a brief visit before accompanying his family home.

* * *

—A guest fivesome in Lincoln at the moment includes Lt. Col. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Husemoller and their three daughters, Mary Beth, Betty Jane and Susan Kay, who have just returned to the States after a three-year tour of duty in Japan where Lt. Col. Husemoller was stationed with the Air Force.

The visitors are the house guests of Lt. Col. Husemoller's mother, Mrs. George Caves, and after their stay in Lincoln will go to the Air Force officer's new assignment at Roswell, N.Mex.

* * *

—One of the soon-to-be brides is Miss Judy Mueller who has chosen Sept. 1, as the date of her marriage to Roger Hall, Jr.

Next Sunday evening Miss Mueller and her fiance will share honors when Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Yaussi, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Everett and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Good are hosts and hostesses at a 6:30 o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Yaussi. The guest list will include, in addition to a group of friends of the bride-to-be's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Roland Mueller, Mr. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hall of Omaha. Miss Mueller will be presented with a pottery shower.

* * *

—Back in town after a six weeks tour of Europe are Mrs. Ralph Hill, Mrs. E. J. Hested. Dr. and Mrs. Vance Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Held.

The travelers have many things to remember of their tour of Europe — Among these memories are the Passion Play at Oberammergau, Germany—the opera in Rome—Shakespeare in England—and the scenic trips by boat on the Rhine and the Seine.

Party Honors Bride-Elect

Complimenting Miss Virginia Gessner, whose marriage to Robert Lewis will be solemnized on Sept. 3, Mrs. DeLoyd Larson was hostess at a dessert luncheon and miscellaneous shower last Sunday. The guest list included a group of former high school friends.

A Trio Of Visitors

A popular guest threesome in Lincoln includes Mrs. Tom Yates and her children, Vance and Ann, who with Mr. Yates arrived from Riverside, Conn., last week end. Mr. Yates left immediately for a business trip, but Mrs. Yates and the children will spend two weeks as the house guests of Mrs. Yates' mother, Mrs. Charles Vance Traphagen.

We hear that Mr. Yates plans to join his family for week ends during their stay in Lincoln.

News Of Suburbia

INDIAN VILLAGE

Understand that some new residents in Indian Village are Mr. and Mrs. Marion F. Edgerton and their nine month-old son, Clint. The Edgerton family, who formerly lived at 1402 So. 28th, moved into the house at 1233 Dakota last Sunday.

The welcome mat is out for Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Lancaster who will be living at the Indian Village address, 1243 Dakota. Mrs. Lancaster was the former Mary Cunningham before her marriage on Saturday, Aug. 6.

COUNTRY CLUB TERRACE

Heard from the stork of the arrival of Renee Hope Kolofske, daughter of Lt. and Mrs. Bruce Kolofske. The young lady made her debut at St. Elizabeth Hospital on Sunday, Aug. 7. Mrs. Kolofske is the former Carole Vaghi.

The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F. Kolofske of Brooklyn, N.Y., and Mr. and Mrs. J. Vaghi of North Burgen, N.J., are the maternal grandparents.

Then we heard that Capt. and Mrs. Arthur Flicker will be moving from the suburb next Saturday. They will move from the home at 3943 Pace Blvd. into the house at 6438 Walker Dr. at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

M (Moving) day was Saturday for Mr. and Mrs. Duane L. Meyer and their children, two-year-old Kevin and Ann who is nine months old. They moved from the home at 3919 Pace Blvd. into the house at 3235 So. 30th.

In our guest book we find the names of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brestel of Chappell. They were the house guests of their son, Merle Brestel, and his family during the week end.

The visitors were in Lincoln particularly this week end as Sunday was Mrs. Merle Brestel's birthday anniversary.

Monday evening visitors were the Rev. and Mrs. Milton Weishahn and their family, who were the guests of the Rev. Mr. Weishahn's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Weishahn, and family. The Rev. Mr. Weishahn and his family will return to their home in Des Moines, Ia., tomorrow following their visit in Lincoln at the home of his mother, Mrs. Louise Weishahn.

Also on Monday evening we understand, Susan Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Smith, invited three of her 12 year-old friends to her home for a slumber party. The slumbering was done in the backyard in tents. And we might imagine that the teen-agers, Susan, Linda Grant, Karen Frick and Diane Strobel, spent part of the evening watching for Echo I satellite that was seen in the skies that night.

Reception

In post-nuptial courtesy to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon R. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller will entertain at a reception at their home, 819 A, on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 21. Friends are asked to call between the hours of 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock without further invitation.

Bride At Candlelight Service

MRS. DALE BURTON KING

At a candlelight service solemnized on Sunday evening, Aug. 14, Miss Juanita Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Brown of Osawatomie, Kan., became the bride of Dale Burton King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. King.

The matron of honor was Mrs. John Charles Rice of New Orleans, and the flower girl was Miss Sherly King, Lincoln. Gary King, Lincoln, was ringbearer.

The bride's gown of white imported organdy over taffeta was designed with a slim midriff of Venise lace, and narrow edging of the lace bordered the rounded neckline and was repeated in the trim of the flaring skirt. Her illusion veil was held by a pearl crown, and she carried white roses and ivy.

Mr. King, a former student at the University of Nebraska, and his bride will reside in Kansas City. Mrs. King attended Baker University, Baldwin City, Kan., and is a member of Alpha Chi Omega.

Late Summer Brides—Elect In Spotlight

Miss Lonna Barth will be the incentive for a prenuptial courtesy on Wednesday evening when Mrs. Tom Yaussi, Mrs. Boyd MacDougall, Mrs. Lloyd Jeffrey, and Mrs. Cecil Kirk will be co-hostesses at the home of Mrs. Yaussi. Following the dessert supper, Miss Barth will be presented with a miscellaneous shower.

And on Thursday evening Miss Ann Wahl, Miss Beth Hemmer, and Miss Pat Heumann will enteritain high school friends of the bride-elect at the home of Miss Wahl.

Miss Barth, who will become the bride of Frederick Peterson on Friday, Sept. 2, again will be the honoree at a miscellaneous shower and dessert luncheon to be given by Mrs. Wayne Harm at her home on Saturday, Aug. 27.

A popular fall bride-elect is Miss Alice Mary Anderson, whose marriage to David Higgins will be solemnized on Saturday, Sept. 3, at St. Teresa's Church.

This evening, Miss Anderson will be the guest of honor at a dessert supper and kitchen shower given by Mrs. William J. Rice and Mrs. Earl Brady at the home of Mrs. Rice. Among Miss Carlyn Trindel of Fairbury will attend Miss Anderson as maid of honor; the bridesmaids will be Miss Pat Olive, Leavenworth, Kan.; Miss Carolyn Higgins, San Jose, Calif. and Miss Ann Higgins; and Miss Trudy Trindel of Fairbury will be the junior bridesmaid.

The flower girl will be Miss Carla Vondra, and Jeffrey Kohout will serve as the ringbearer.

The best man will be Donald Houser, and seating the guests at the 10:30 o'clock service will be John Higgins, Schuyler, Jerry Overgaard, Joe McWilliams, Jim Houser and Robert Lane.

CUBAN MASS ENDS WITH SLAP AT U.S.

Havana (AP) — A mammoth open air mass to celebrate Prime Minister Fidel Castro's return to health turned into another noisy anti-American demonstration Tuesday night.

The Rev. Herman Lens, who officiated at the mass in the national amphitheater, touched off wild cheering as he concluded his sermon with "long live Fidel Castro."

A crowd of 15,000 took up the same cry and then switched to "Cuba si, Yankees no" and "Fidel — what does he have that America can't handle him?"

The mass was organized by a revolutionary Catholic organization — "with the cross and with the fatherland" — which has come to prominence in the midst of a controversy between the Castro regime and Cuba's Roman Catholic hierarchy. Church sources said it does not have the formal approval of the Catholic church.

The service obviously was designed as a rebuff to church authorities who warned in a recent pastoral letter of Communism's advance in Cuba.

The mass had church approval Church authorities virtually are obliged to accede to requests for special masses.

Father Lens celebrated the mass on a floodlit altar sprinkled with microphones that had a giant Cuban flag as a backdrop. A number of militiamen and militiawomen surrounded the altar.

The first applause burst from the crowd as he said: "We have offered up holy sacrifice to give thanks to the Lord for having returned to health the maximum leader of the Cuban revolution, Fidel Castro."

Militiamen sought to quiet the crowd but even they joined in applause when Father Lens said, "long live a free and sovereign Cuba."

He added, "long live the Virgin of Charity of El Cobre" (Cuba's patron saint) and "long live Fidel Castro."

Castro, who apparently has recovered from what was described last month as a lung infection did not attend.

The crowd was about equally divded between men and women. Many women knelt and prayed outside the amphitheater. Some carried pictures of Castro.

During the day, the Bank Workers Union distributed leaflets urging "all true Christians who are good revolutionaries" to attend.

School Bus Drivers Aren't Looking Forward To Snow

It's still a long time till snow flies, but school bus drivers aren't looking forward to the day.

Take this observation from last winter:

"After we were stuck in the snow and had to be pulled out and slid into ditches because we couldn't see out of windows, our passengers weren't even scared." Sutton area school bus driver Herbert R. Griess, who's been on the job there for the last 6 years, knows what a tough job it is.

He's one of 100 school bus drivers who attended the 1960 Nebraska School Bus Drivers Training Conference in Lincoln. A similiar meeting is slated Thursday in North Platte.

"The nation's increased productivity is closely linked with motor vehicles," speaker John McCracken of the U.S. Public Health Service in Washington, D.C., told the drivers.

Great Concern

"Accidents are a great concern," McCracken went on, pointing out that they represent a great loss in productivity.

Lt. Elmer Schroeder of the Nebraska Safety Patrol told the drivers:

"The 4 'E's' of traffic safety are enforcement, engineering, education and example."

He emphasized the last 'E', urging drivers to set good personal examples to their young passengers, thus helping them develop a constructive attitude toward safety.

The conference was sponsored by the State Department of Health and Education, and assisted by the State Safety Patrol, the American Red Cross, the U.S. Public Health Service, the Nebraska Safety Committee, the Traffic Safety Committee, and the University of Nebraska College of Medicine.

End Joy

San Antonio, Tex. (UPI) — Police took into custody two youths, aged 15 and 16, who admitted taking J. B. Hill's Shetland pony for "a joy ride."

Newly Formed Conservatives Plan County-By-County Drive

Grand Island (AP) — The Nebraska Constitutional Conservatives, a newly formed group dedicated to "the preservation of America's moral, economic and political structure," Tuesday laid plans for a county-by-county drive to help elect conservative congressional candidates in Nebraska's November election.

The action grew out of a one-day meeting here.

Approximately 100 members of the group from over the state heard a call for what officers termed "aggressive conservatism to put men in Congress who will support the constitutional principles of sound money, government economy, individual liberty, local self-government, the private competitive market system, private ownership and control of the means of production and distribution and freedom for the individual from corecion with federal government sanction."

The organization rated incumbent candidates for Congress in accordance with an index put out by Americans for Constitutional Action, the parent group.

Rep. Lawrence Brock, Democrat from the Third District, had a 32% rating.

Rep. Donald McGinley, Democrat from the Fourth District, had a 29% rating.

Rep. Phil Weaver, First District Republican, was rated at 70%.

Rep. Glenn Cunningham, Second District Republican, received an 85% rating.

Sen. Carl T. Curtis, Republican, rated 91% which the group said was one of the highest scores in the nation.

The group also rated other national figures:

Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, Democratic national chairman, had a one per cent rating.

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic presidential nominee, was rated 11%.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, Democratic vice presidential candidate, rated 10%.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, Virginia Democrat, received a 92% rating.

Loran Schmit of David City was chairman of the meeting.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key number left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures gives you. Summertime Huskers

Two weeks from today the 1960 Nebraska Cornhuskers will assemble in Lincoln, prior to starting earnest preparations on Sept. 1 for the Texas game.

Most—if not all—of Bill Jennings' hopefuls will be in good physical condition because most of them have been hard at work this summer.

Haney

Just to give you an idea, we checked with Jennings—the NU staff keeps close tab on the prospects during vacation—and I'll pass on portions of his report, which starts:

"All of the boys have been pretty busy this summer."

Bill wasn't kidding, either.

Construction work attracted the majority of Huskers, but occupations varied from painting, farming, selling, soldiering and baseballing to coaching and police work.

Darrell Cooper is one of Joe Carroll's gendarmes. . . . Gary Toogood is working on a relative's farm near North Platte. . . . George Haney and Archie Cobb teamed as painters before going to National Guard summer camps . . . Bill Comstock and Larry Donovan are helping to build the new Scottsbluff high school. . . . Dick McDaniel is working for a moving firm. . . Jack Faiman is laboring in an Omaha packing plant, while John Bond has spent 6 weeks in ROTC summer camp.

McDole

Selling And School

Pat Fischer, who is being counted on heavily at the key quarterback spot, underwent surgery early in the summer and has been recuperating—satisfactorily, at last report—but he still found time to do some selling. . . . Dennis Claridge is in construction at Robbinsdalle, Minn., while fellow Gopher-Stater Ron Meade—another top QB candidate—took some summer school courses. . . . Pat Clare summer-schooled at Creighton. . . . Others in construction—Bernie Clay, Bennie Dillard, Clay White, Roland McDole, and Tyrone Robertson (all in Lincoln); Bob Jones (in West Point), Warren Powers (in Kansas City), Dallas Dyer (in Lexington) and Gene Ward (in Glenwood, Ia.). . . . John Ponseigo is a Lincoln cement firm employee.

Fischer

Baseball And Oil

Larry Krause, Bill MacDonald and Dennis Steuwe took an anthropology course in summer school. . . . Don Purcell played baseball in Iowa. . . . Don Fricke split time between the police department and his family's farm. . . . Mick Tingelhoff is an oil field roughneck in Wyoming. . . . Noel Martin is farming the homestead at Clay Center, Kan.

Fricke

Bill (Thunder) Thornton is a city recreation worker in Toledo, Ohio, the same type job Dick Kosier is holding down in Watertown, S. D. . . . and Monte Kiffin, kept his back on the mend by coaching an American Legion baseball team in Lexington.

No question about it, the Cornhuskers have had a busy summer. And it's just about time to start preparing for a mighty busy fall.

NEW YORK CEMENTS HOLD

—YANK BATON PASSERS LEAVE LITTLE TO BE DESIRED—

U.S. Is Rugged In Relays

(Second of a series of 10 articles by a recognized world authority on track and field analyzing the competition in the Olympic Games).

By Robert L. Quercetani

Rome (AP) — The situation in the 400 meter flat event at the Olympic Games is a fluid one. At least half a dozen men appear to have something to say about the gold medal.

Pan American champion George Kerr, 23, a Jamaican student at the University of Illinois, has shown his heels to the U.S. elite more than once.

The smooth-striding Kerr, who will run for the British West Indies in Rome, is a protege of former Jamaican Olympian Herb McKenley.

Equally prominent at both 400 and 800 meters, Kerr has so far shown little proclivity for "doubling" at close time intervals.

In Rome the heats of the 400 will come the day after the 800 meter final.

Spence Prospect

Mal Spence of South Africa, 23, ran the English distance in 45.9 on an oversized track in April, after a ding-dong battle with his countryman Gordon Day.

As beautiful a "glider" as one can ever see, Mal has made tremendous progress since he placed 6th at Melbourne in 1956.

Imposing Milkha Singh, 25, is India's best track prospect ever. He won the British Empire title from Mal Spence in 1958 and is a great all-around sprinter.

Europe's best bet at this distance is Carl Kaufmann of Germany, 24, a Brooklyn-born amateur pianist who lowered the continental 400 meter record to 45.8 in June.

3 Californians

The U.S. trio is made up by Jack Yerman of Woodland, Earl Young of San Fernando and Otis Davis of Los Angeles, 3 California boys.

These men came out of the magic box at the Palo Alto trials after two torrid rounds (semifinal and final) within 90 minutes.

Yerman, 21, had been in the front row of U.S. quartermilers for 3 seasons, but did not emerge as the top man until the Palo Alto races.

Young, 19, is a strong but inexperienced prospect. Davis, who although 28 has only two seasons of competition in the event, is fastest of the 3 on paper.

No Favorite

No one stands out as a clear favorite. Form of the day will thus have a decisive weight. The United States is facing a difficult but not hopeless task.

Uncle Sam's tradition is good here too: 8 gold medals out of a possible 13.

Ford Shackles Baltimore 1-0

... WHITEY ALLOWS THREE HITS

New York (AP)—Whitey Ford, who volunteered to work with only two days rest because of a pitching shortage, shackled Baltimore with 3 hits Tuesday as the New York Yankees shut out the Orioles 1-0 to cement their hold on first place.

The veteran southpaw was in command all the way, striking out 6 and walking two. Baltimore did not have a single runner pass second base and did not have more than one base runner in any inning.

Chuck Estrada, freshman righthander, matched Ford's brilliant pitching except for the 4th inning when the Yankees scored the only run of the game.

Johnny Blanchard drove in the run with a single. It scored Moose Skowron, who was hit by a pitched ball and raced to 3rd on a single by Yogi Berra.

Blanchard followed with a ground single through the middle to break the scoreless deadlock.

The Yankee victory, their second straight over Baltimore, dropped the Orioles a game and a half behind New York.

It was Ford's second straight 1-0 victory. He defeated Washington by the same score last Saturday.

Tuesday's triumph was Ford's 9th of the season, 4 over the Orioles. It was his 4th shutout of the campaign.

Estrada, who absorbed his 7th defeat against 13 victories, gave up all 8 Yankee hits in the 7 innings he worked. Billy Hoeft hurled the last inning for Baltimore.

Jackie Brandt, the first batter to face Ford, doubled but failed to advance as Whitey retired the next three batters.

Mickey Mantle, who blasted two home runs and drove in all the runs in the Yankees' 4-3 triumph Monday night, went hitless in 4 times

Chiefs' Homers Hit Burlington

... SIX BEE ERRORS HELP

Lincoln Star Special

Burlington, Ia.—The Lincoln Chiefs combined 3 home runs with 6 Burlington errors here Tuesday night to snap a 4-game losing streak with an 8-5 victory.

Manly Johnston belted his 18th homer, Al Bullock got his 6th and Dick Selinger hit No. 5 as the Chiefs piled up an early 7-0 lead.

Burlington bunched its 5 runs into the 7th and 8th inings against starter Ed Szyczewski and reliefer Jerry Moeller, but Dan Osinski finally stopped the Bees' swarming to preserve the victory.

Johnston's homer put Lincoln ahead 1-0 in the 3rd and the Chiefs got the first of 3 unearned runs in the 4th for a 2-0 lead.

Selinger parked his round tripper to start the 5th, then two more Bee errors gave the Chiefs another run.

Bullock's homer with Chuck Lindstrom aboard capped a 3-run surge in the 7th and put the game out of reach. Lindstrom's 3rd single in the 8th sent home Dean Look with the final Lincoln tally.

Ed Napoleon's 2-run double got rid of Szyczewski in the Burlington 7th and brought in Moeller.

Moeller issued 3 straight walks to start the 8th and 3 runs scored before Osinski came on to get the side out.

Szyczewski recorded his 5th win against 7 losses as the Chiefs opened a 3-game series. Ted Butters took the loss.

Lincoln's Al Brice (8-5) faces Tom Sisk (3-5) tonight.

Nats' Ramos Hurls, Bats In 8-5 Win

Washington (AP) — Pedro Ramos pumped a homer and a run-scoring single as he batted and helped pitch Washington into the first division with an 8-5 victory over Boston Tuesday.

Ramos needed help from Hal Woodeshick and Ray Moore in the 9th when the Red Sox rallied for two runs. But the Cuban was credited with his 9th victory against 13 defeats.

Ramos has won 65 games in the American League and 20 have been at the expense of the Red Sox who have beaten him only 11 times.

Every Senator who started contributed to the 14-hit winning attack. But all they had was a 2-2 tie in the 7th when Ramos altered things with his second homer of the season.

HOW TO THROW A BASEBALL

The little fellow tossing the ball towards the cameraman, 14-month-old Vaughn Law, is getting some expert advice on how to throw, although he may not yet be old enough to realize it. Coaching is his smiling father, pitcher Vernon Law who has a 17-5 record with the Pittsburgh Pirates this season.

Pirates Pound Phillies Twice

... WIN GAMES 11-2, 4-3

Pittsburgh (AP) — The league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates won both games of a twi-night doubleheader with the Philadelphia Phillies Tuesday night, taking the first game 11-2 and the second 4-3.

The Pirates won the first game with a 15-hit attack behind the 7-hit pitching of Bob Friend.

in the second game by issuing a bases-loaded walk after the Pirates had bunted safely 3 times in a row.

Bunts by Dick Groat, Bob Skinner and Rocky Nelson loaded the sacks for Pittsburgh in the 8th inning of the nightcap with nobody out. Roberts then walked Roberto Clemente, forcing in the winning run. Roberts pitched out of the jam without another run scoring.

Roberts' walk was the only one he issued in the game.

Pirate reliever Elroy Face received credit for the second game victory and is now 7-6 for the year.

In the opener, Friend was tapped for an unearned run on two hits and an error in the first frame. He gave up a harmless single in the second then retired 17 battters in a row before yielding another single in the 8th.

MISSING THE TARGET

Cuba's Benny (Kid) Paret misses a moving target in the form of Denny Moyer of Portland, Ore., as his right grazes the head of Moyer in the 3rd round at New York's Madison Square Garden Tuesday night. Moyer won a surprise split decision over the world welterweight champion Paret in the 10-round non-title bout.

Ronhovde Fretting Heavy Injury Run

... ONLY 22 ON HAND TUESDAY

By Don Bryant

Fremont — If someone would have asked Art Ronhovde Tuesday what he'd like to have more than anything else he probably would have responded:

"Someone to invent a Rapid Heal spray and send me a carload."

Ronhovde is head coach of the North Shrine Bowl team, currently preparing for Saturday's game with the South.

Tuesday Art and his aides —Bill Stephenson of Rushville, Bill Giles of Norfolk and Bob Gates of Omaha Holy Name — were busy, but they were also fretting about the heavy run of injuries that threaten to cripple North at Memorial Stadium Saturday.

"We're having a tough time fielding a team," Art groaned. "About the only thing we can do is help the boys know what to do and hope they get well by Saturday."

Only 22 Ready

Only 22 players were available Tuesday for full-scale practice. The rest of the squad participated minus pads or in shorts.

Latest casualty, and one that is causing great concern, was Omaha North Tackle Al Hollingsworth — slated to enroll at Colorado— who cracked up Tuesday morning. The 210-pound ex-Viking suffered a severe knee injury, but it won't be known for a couple of days whether or not he'll be sidelined Saturday.

With John Coschka of Creighton Prep already homebound because of an early injury, the 32-man North squad may find depth a serious problem come Saturday.

Peterson Doubtful

Ronhovde said he wasn't certain if any player definitely would miss the game because of injury, but opined, "Jack Peterson (Omaha North tackle) would have to be listed as doubtful."

As a result of the injury epidemic, contact work may be limited from now on at the Midland College practice field.

"There won't be much contact," Art sighed, before herding his hustlers out for a session of fundamentals, pass patterns, group work and dummy running plays.

Ronhovde said he wouldn't know his starters until after Wednesday afternoon's practice.

"It will depend on several things, but largely on how well some of the boys heal," he said. "But we should have the starters after Wednesday's work."

The North coach continued to heap praise on Omaha Tech's Preston Love for being "consistently outstanding on offense." Love to date has eluded Nebraska recruiters and apparently is headed for Northwestern.

Other individual standouts have been back Sid Micek of Scottsbluff — who may see action at both halfback and quarterback — Center Duncan Drum of Fremont and End Mike Lynch of Creighton Prep.

All members of the coaching staff joined in saluting Guard Pat O'Neill, another Bluejay, Tuesday.

"He's been working very hard and looking very good," Giles said.

Sidelights . . . The North team has a mascot, named "Dinger." The mongrel dog roams the Midland campus, but reports to the area in front of the locker room in time to greet the players as they head for practice — and to get numerous pats on the head . . . Quarterback Pat Dugan of Creighton Prep joined the coaches in worrying about the injuries, but was happy about one thing: "We've got pretty good size —in fact, some big boys up front." . . . It wasn't enough for the players to run into the injury jinx, one of the coaches went on the sick bay list Tuesday afternoon. Holy Name's Gates stepped on a thumb tack — with bare feet — while he was dressing for the workout. "Put me on the injured list, too, coach," he yelled at Ronhovde, as he danced a jig.

SOUTH BETTER

Crete (AP)—Coach Jess Keifer sent his South team through hour and a half scrimmages both Tuesday forenoon and afternoon and declared the prep footballers, preparing for the Shrine Bowl game Saturday, are timing and executing single wing plays better.

Two offensive backs, Joe McNulty of Wymore and Bob Hohn of Beatrice, were standouts. End Tom McQuire of Falls City snagged several long passes for substantial gains.

The defensive stars included 3 Boys Town players, end Jack Munkers, guard Curt Devers and tackle Gerald Schulte.

Crazy Chas. Selections:

Hello equine enthusiasts.

Apparently the only rabbit's foot or feet, as the case may be worth having at the Fairgrounds are those jockey Kenneth Hare puts in the irons.

Sure Crazy Charlie knows who does the running, but who decides where and when.

There are some people who maintain that it just isn't fair for one chap to win so often. Of course old crazy can still remember when a couple of fellows named Boyd Morris and Ray Correa used to own the Capital City course. Good luck fans.

Chisox Use Tiger Error To Win 3-2

Chicago (AP) — The Chicago White Sox scored two runs on a double steal and a wild throw by catcher Harry Chiti in the 8th inning Tuesday night for a 3-2 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

With one out in the 8th, Jim Landis singled and moved to second on a safe bunt by Nellie Fox. With a count of 3-2 on Roy Sievers, both runners went with the pitch.

Jim Bunning fanned Sievers and when Chiti tried to get Landis at 3rd, he threw the ball into left field and both men scored.

The victory gave the Sox sole possession of second place and enabled them to stay within one-half game of the New York Yankees who dropped the Baltimore Orioles into 3rd.

Frank Baumann, gaining his 8th victory for the Sox, yielded 7 hits.

Bunning suffered his 9th loss against 7 victories.

Warren Spahn Outfoxes Reds

...VETERAN WINS DUEL

Cincinnati (AP) — Ageless Warren Spahn's skill and experience were too much for Jay Hook's youth and strength Tuesday night and Milwaukee eeked out a 2-1 victory over Cincinnati after a pitching duel.

Three Milwaukee singles in the 8th inning put over the deciding run.

The reds kept Spahn in problems, getting a man on base in every inning but the second.

He scattered 8 hits, fanned 5, and walked 4.

Hook was tagged for 9 hits, and walked 4.

Spahn criticized the ball-and strike calls of plate Umpire Chris Pelekoudas all through the game.

In the 5th, Spahn fanned and argued so vigorously with the umpire, teammates had to push him away.

In the 9th, Spahn again jawed with Pelekoudas after Frank Robinson was the second Redleg to walk.

Francona's Single Ups Tribe, 4-3

Cleveland (AP) — A bases-loaded single by Tito Francona in the 10th inning drove in the run Tuesday night that gave the Cleveland Indians a 4-3 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

Francona also drove in two runs with his 9th homer of the season in the second inning.

Dick Williams got 3 of the 7 Kansas City hits—a home run and two singles—to extend his batting streak to 14 games.

The victory was the 9th straight for the Indians over the Athletics.

SF Dumps Cardinals

St. Louis (AP) — Juan Marichal, backed by the savage hitting of Hobie Landrith, his battery mate, held the St. Louis Cardinals to 4 hits to give the San Francisco Giants a 7-3 victory Tuesday night.

The 21-year-old rookie, who came to the Giants from Tacoma after the All-Star games, now has a record of 4 victories and no losses.

Landrith, whose average was .240 prior to the game, hit 3 doubles and a single, driving in 3 runs and scoring two.

The defeat was a costly one for the Cards. It dropped them 7½ games behind National League-leading Pittsburgh which swept a double-header with the Philadelphia Phillies.

State Prep Rater Misses Guess -But He's Happy

The Star's veteran Prep Rater Al Beebe, usually has good success in his predictions, but he missed on his latest bit of prognosticaing.

Before he left on vacation, Beebe said: "I want a girl, but I know it will be a boy!"

Early Tuesday morning, Mrs. Beebe crossed up her predictor-husband and presented him with a 7-pound, 6-ounce Monica Beth.

She joins Tod and Kyle —two good reasons why Beebe wanted a girl.

NEBRASKA LADS TRAIL IN MEET

Waterloo, Ia. (AP)—Raymond Floyd of Fayetteville, N.C., carded a 4-under-par 68 for medal honors in the opening of the 72-hole International Jaycee Golf Tournament at Gates Park course Tuesday.

The 17-year-old Floyd, who was second in the North Carolina high school and Jaycee tourneys this year, had 4 birdies and never went over par.

Only 3 others in the field of 200 were able to break par.

Nebraska's contingent was well back in the pack. Charles Borner and Jules Van Dersarl shot 81s, Kermit Mortenson of Albion an 82 and Ken Wilson of Hastings an 84.

Ladies Publinks Begins August 22

The annual Ladies Publinks Golf tourney will be held at Pioneers Park Public Golf Course Aug. 22-24.

To be eligible ladies must have resided in Lincoln during the last 6 months and not be affiliated with any private club.

Average score or handicap will be accepted for qualifying.

A $1 entry fee must be submitted by 6 p.m. this Friday, Aug. 19 at the Pioneers clubhouse.

Accident Ruins Chicago's Bid

ROOKIE AL HEIST HURT AS DODGERS WIN 7-5

Chicago (AP) — While rookie centerfielder Al Heist lay stunned after crashing into Wrigley Field's vine-covered wall trying to catch his long hit, Wally Moon rounded the bases with two runners ahead of him Tuesday. The inside-the-park homer broke the Chicago Cubs' back and led to a 7-5 Los Angeles Dodger victory in 11 innings.

Maury Wills and Junior Gilliam had singled in the 8th inning when Moon went to the plate. His blow near the 400-foot mark in center was taken by Heist as Heist back pedaled hard into the wall. He dropped to the ground as if blackjacked.

Just as Heist crashed, the ball bounced from his glove and struck him in the face, opening a deep cut on his left cheek.

Leftfielder Richie Ashburn rushed over and picked up the ball. He threw to second baseman Jerry Kindall, but the relay to the plate was too late to get Moon, who was credited with his 11th homer of the season.

Heist finally was revived and left the field under his own power. He was taken to a doctor's office for stitches.

The 3 runs tied the score 5-5.

The league's leading batter, Norm Larker, belted his second double of the game to drive Moon in with the winning run in the 11th.

Rookie Tommy Davis, hitting safely in his 16th straight game, pop-singled home Larker, who had taken 3rd on the throw-in after his double to deep right.

Huskers Given 5th Place In Pre-Season Grid Poll

The Nebraska Cornhuskers have been picked to finish 5th in the Big 8 football race this year by a record number of 92 area sportswriters and sportscasters who took part in the 15th annual conference pre-season poll.

Predicted to win the title in 1960 was Oklahoma which already has a string of 12 consecutive undisputed championships on the line.

Using the inverse rating system (votes times each position for low score) the Cornhuskers polled 487 votes. Two picked Nebraska for a second-place finish and 5 gave the Huskers 3rd place.

The poll indicated a tighter race from top to bottom. Behind Oklahoma with its low score 139½ was Kansas with 178, Missouri with 297, Colorado woth 369½ and Nebraska were Oklahoma State with 560½ votes, Iowa State with 566½ and Kansas State with 714.

Rounding out the league

Nobody predicted easy sailing for Oklahoma. The Sooners polled only 56 per cent of the title vote.

John Nickell's 678 series led the A & A Asphalt team of Detroit to victory in the team competition at the American Bowling Congress event in Toledo this spring.

AMOS ALONZO STAGG IS 98, GIVEN HIGHEST GRID AWARD

Stockton, Calif. (AP) — Amos Alonzo Stagg celebrated his 98th birthday Tuesday. His gifts included the National Football Foundation's Gold Medal award and a telegram of congratulations from President Eisenhower.

The grand old man of American sports, visibly affected by the luncheon given in his honor, made a brief thank-you speech.

The 222 guests, many of them former football players, rose in applause as the white-haired gentleman, now bothered by impaired eyesight, took his seat.

The Gold Medal, awarded previously only to President Eisenhower and Gen. Douglas MacArthur, was given to Stagg by Football Foundation President Chester J. La Roche.

"Every football man could use his life as a pattern," said La Roche in a speech devoted to Stagg's career as player and coach.

President Eisenhower's wire said:

"On your 98th birthday I am delighted to send greetings to you and best wishes to all gathered in your honor. I understand that on this day you will receive a Gold Medal of the National Football Foundation for outstanding service in the field of football and character training. You have won the respect of sportsmen everywhere. Congratulations."

MacArthur also sent congratulations.

Wayne Hardin, a former Stagg student and now Navy football coach, told Stagg a chair in his honor has been set aside in the new Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium at Annapolis.

The Lions Club, feting Stagg for the 9th year, had a special cake prepared. It was in two sections, constructed as a replica of the Gold Medal which read:

"Presented to Amos Alonzo Stagg . . . football pioneer . . . master strategist . . . embodiment of the football ideal through many decades . . . builder of men in mind, body and spirit . . . his legacy a gold heritage to the American youth . . . 1960."

'Phony' Demo Promises Hit At GOP Rally

Former Governor Robert Crosby accused the Democrats of "making promises they can't and don't intend to keep" at a post convention rally of Lancaster County Republicans Tuesday night.

Moderating a panel consisting of delegates and alternates to the GOP convention, Crosby said the Democrats "promise everything to everybody but are at a loss when it comes to production."

Another former governor, Victor Anderson, lamblasted the Democratic convention, calling it rigged and controlled by "bosses."

"Many Democrats, notably Truman, did not favor Kennedy but could not buck the machine," he said.

Abe Martin, former Lincoln mayor, spoke out for the GOP platform on economic grounds, citing it as "progressive and forward going."

Other members of the panel included Fern Hubbard Orme, Mrs. Charles Warner, Nate Holman, and Bob Nelson.

Almost Entire State In Need Of Rainfall

. . . East, North Dryland Corn Suffering

Nebraska needs some more rain, government crop observers reported Tuesday.

Shortage of surface soil moisture exists in nearly all counties except the two tiers adjacent to the Missouri River, according to the weekly crop report of the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics.

Corn and milo made satisfactory progress last week in areas getting recent rains, but condition declined in the west and some other dry sections.

Dry Areas In West

Some critically dry areas have developed in the west, and dryland corn is suffering in some eastern counties and along the northern border, the report said.

Hail and wind damage is reported from "quite a few places" and corn rootworm is taking a toll in a number of counties.

Other observations:

About 90% of the corn crop was tasselled by last week end. About two-thirds of the milo has headed.

Irrigation water demands are high and canal water supplies are becoming short in the North Platte Valley.

Pastures and ranges are curing rapidly in the dry areas. Some sections of the extreme northwest have prospects for poor grazing and a shortage of stock water.

About 35% of the third crop of alfalfa has been cut.

Shipments of stocker and feeder cattle into the state during July fell 17% short of the same month last year, but sheep and lamb arrivals climbed 24%.

Rainfall throughout Nebraska during the week ending Monday included:

	East
Grand Island	.05	Lincoln	.09
	Central
Valentine	.43
	West
Chadron	.01	Sidney	.11
Imperial	.09

Accumulated rainfall by sections since the beginning of the growing season April 1 together with average amounts follow:

Northwest—8 inches (1960); 10.34 inches (average).
North Central—12.81; 12.07.
Northeast—16.34; 14.03.
Central—15.39; 13.14.
East Central—17.18; 14.78.
Southwest 9.12; 11.45.
South Central—16.78; 13.36.
Southeast—17.75; 15.84.

Inspection Of 6 Plots Set For Field Day

North Platte (AP) — Several hundred central Nebraska farmers are expected to attend the summer Irrigation Crops Field Day at the North Platte Experiment Station Friday.

Visitors will be taken on tours of 6 different plots. Staff members at the station and others from the University of Nebraska will discuss research results.

GOP Farm Action Group Holds Initial Meeting

Hastings (AP) — What looms as one of the Republican party's principle vehicles in finding a solution to the agricultural problem-going directly to farmers to get their thinking-received one of its first road tests in Hastings.

Twenty-five south central Nebraska farmers attended the meeting to aid in formation of a Republican Farm Action Committee in the First Congressional District.

Ed Terrill of Madison, Wis., field director of agriculture activities for the GOP National Committee, and Jack Schuetz of Lincoln, executive secretary of the Nebraska Republican Central Committee, were in charge of the meeting.

Terrill, a farm operator, told the group that Vice President Richard Nixon, GOP presidential candidate, "has a very real and honest interest in farm problems."

Pointing out that the Democrats have almost a two-to-one majority in both houses of Congress, Terrill asserted that the Republicans must not sit back and take the blame for the present farm problem.

"The Democrats could have introduced new legislation to alleviate the farm problem but they did not do it," he said. "We have not had a Republican farm program on the books. It is a Democratic program and trying to blame the Republicans for the plan is not justified. Let us put the blame where it belongs, in the laps of the Democrats."

Action committees will get farmers' thinking on the agricultural problem and channel it to the National Committee, disseminate information from the committee back to farmers, and work rural areas to get out the GOP farm vote.

Parks, People Keynote Conference

The business of how to run parks and how to educate the people who use them occupied delegates to the Mid-western Parks and Recreation Conference Tuesday.

Speakers and panel discussions covered topics from tree disease to crafts classes, with emphasis on how to get the most out of a limited budget.

R. R. "Pat" Murphy, director of Oklahoma City parks and recreation, told the conference that "we must streamline our imagination, and face the fact that we are not going to get more tax money."

Creative ideas that lead to more efficient use of man hours and space may be the answer to reduced park budgets, he told delegates.

Speaking on outdoor education, George T. Wilson of the Milwaukee public schools stressed the importance of teaching people to use outdoors facilities correctly through field trips, gun and boating safety courses and life saving courses.

The conference ends Wednesday with quiz sessions and a business meeting scheduled in the morning, and tours in the afternoon.

It's Not All Work

The Mid Continent Park and Recreation Conference delegates put in a full 8 hours in workshop sessions Tuesday, but a couple of freeloaders, Bryan (going down and Mark (going up) Cox, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Cox of Rockport, Mo., took advantage of the myriad of equipment displays while their parents were in meetings. (Star Photo.)

Gun-Toting Cubans Are Disarmed

... At OAS Conference

San Jose, Costa Rica (AP) — Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa threatened Tuesday to withdraw from the Western Hemisphere foreign ministers conference unless Costa Rican security police lay off the Cuban delegation. The police disarmed gun-toting members of the delegation Monday and broke up a serenade outside the Cuban quarters.

Roa charged the security force with molesting the Cubans, who are the main center of attention and concern because of the leftward march of the Castro regime in the face of hemispheric anti-Communist pronouncements.

The first business of the organization of American states diplomats was a closed meeting on procedure Tuesday night.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, landed at El Coco airport. An expected anti-American demonstration did not develop as a crowd of about 150 greeted Herter, compared with the 500 who cheered Roa's arrival Sunday.

Chris Anderson Funeral Slated For Thursday

Funeral services for Christian H. (Chris) Andersen, 67, who died Tuesday, will be 10 a.m. Thursday at Umberger's Chapel.

Mr. Andersen, of 4535 Baldwin, was born in Bristow, and had lived in Lincoln 40 years. His father was Crist Andersen, former member of the Nebraska Senate and House.

A florist and nurseryman, he was employed at Williams Nurseries since 1950. He had previously worked for Wyuka Cemetery and Lawson Floral and Greenhouses in Central City.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Kirwan of Omaha and Mrs. Louise Woltkamp of Kansas City, Mo., and two brothers, Rudolph D. of Lincoln and Allan C. of Omaha.

Wards Leader Terms Lincoln Growth Area

The executive vice-president of Montgomery Ward Co. said in Lincoln Monday night the city was chosen for inclusion in Ward's expansion program because it has proven to be "a leading growth area."

Edmund P. Platt of Chicago, in Lincoln to take part in the new Wards store in Gateway Shopping Center Thursday, said:

"When the company began its retail store operations in 1926, Lincoln was chosen as the site for the 10th retail store in the company.

"Now because of the city's past growth and its potential to grow even more, Lincoln has earned its place in the Wards" expansion."

"We are proud of our new store and are confident that the choice was well made."

Word To The Lonely

Ridgecrest, N.C. (AP)—"Loneliness is a very serious problem," the Rev. Dr. Jack Noffsinger, of Winston-Salem, N.C., told a Southern Baptist student meeting here. "The Bible says it is not good for men to live alone. God intended that we should not approach marriage frantically, but understanding something of the sweet mystery of life."

Controversial School Won't Be Integrated

Union, Miss. (AP) — The Rev. Robert B. Judy of Moss, Miss., a founder of a controversial ministerial college near here, said Tuesday the school would not be racially integrated.

"It's simply a religious college of the Church of God to help our young Negro ministers," the white Clergyman said. "We don't have an integrated school at all."

Governor Asked To Extradite Man Charged With $100 Theft

Gov. Ralph Brooks Tuesday took under advisement an extradition matter concerning a request from Wisconsin authorities for the return to that state of Donald W. Ohlinger, who now lives in Omaha.

Ohlinger, who previously lived at Eau Claire, Wis., has been charged with the theft of $100 by his former employer, Buddy Morgan, an Eau Claire music store owner.

At a hearing before the governor Tuesday, Ohlinger's attorney, Ralph Hetzner of Omaha, asked that the request for extradition be denied and contended Morgan was "attempting to use criminal processes to collect a civil debt."

Hetzner presented letters transmitted between Ohlinger and Morgan which acknowledged there was a dispute concerning Ohlinger's sales commissions. Also involved was a loan made to Ohlinger by Morgan.

Opposing philosophies on the Nebraska governor's duties concerning extradition matters dominated the hearing Tuesday.

Richard Williams, assistant attorney general, said in the opinion of Nebraska's Legal Department, the governor can be concerned only with whether the extradition request is in proper order and that to "go into the crime" with which the person is charged "goes beyond the function of the extradition hearing."

Hetzner said if Williams' reasoning were followed, there "would be no purpose in holding hearings."

The Omaha attorney said Nebraska law permits the governor "great discretion" on extradition hearings and cited 3 cases which he said support this contention.

Williams said it is the attorney general's opinion that the reguest from Wisconsin authorities follows the legal requirements, that the papers were in order and the extradition request should be granted.

Both Hetzner and Williams agreed the governor's position is "all powerful" in extradition matters and there can be "no appeal" from his decision.

$500 Fine Given For Tossing Rock

Clifford D. Snapp of 2811 T was fined $500 Tuesday by County Judge Herbert A. Ronin on a malicious destruction of property charge.

Snapp, 22, pleaded guilty. Police said he admitted throwing a rock through the window of the Al Stroh Liquor Store at 2202 O early Tuesday morning.

Police said Snapp was intoxicated at the time.

Flood Control Coordinator 'Enthusiastic' About Plan

Warren Fairchild, coordinator for Gov. Ralph Brooks' Flood Control Advisory Committee, told the governor Tuesday he was "very enthusiastic about the tremendous value" which will come from the group's work.

Fairchild and State Water Resources Director Dan S. Jones Jr. Tuesday presented to the governor minutes of recent meetings held by the 10 sub-committees of the parent advisory committee which constituted the second progress report.

The next and final report will be presented to Brooks October 15.

Fairchild said, "I am certain the material in this report can be used by the state in planning of future resource programs."

Final Report

The final report, Fairchild said, will be a comprehensive resume of existing and proposed programs in the various fields of soil and water resource development.

The recommended programming in the report will be based on a "short (5-year) medium (15-year), and long (40-year) period," he said.

Included in the final draft will be detailed tabulations the state's soil resources, and maps on such matters as needs on flood control, watershed protection, irrigation and ground water.

103 Aiding

Fairchild said there are 103 persons from all over the state representing 59 organizations assisting in deliberations of the advisory committee.

Sub-committee meetings scheduled next include: Soil and Water Conservation, August 22; Recreation, August 29; Education, August 30; Watershed Protection, and Local Government Participation, both Sept. 1; Soil and Water Research, Sept. 6, and Flood Control, Sept. 7. All will be held in Lincoln.

State Pondering Action On CAB's Frontier Decision

State Aeronautics Director Jack Obbink said Tuesday the department expects to decide by the end of this week what action it will take concerning the Civil Aeronautics Board's decision allowing Frontier Airlines to temporarily suspend its northern route.

The complexity of determining legal groundwork for an appeal was cited by Obbink as the reason no action has yet been taken.

Still under consideration is an appeal to the Federal Court of Appeals in Washington, probably on the grounds that the CAB did not hold a public hearing in connection with its decision, he said.

Another alternative would be to ask for a rehearing of the case before the CAB, the director said.

Obbink said that he, the department's special assistant attorney general, Rush Clarke of North Platte, and the department's Washington attorneys have been conferring by telephone to reach some plan of action.

Two-Car Crash Bruises 6 Persons

Police said 6 persons suffered bruises early Tuesday morning in a two-car accident at 33rd and O.

Police said the accident occurred when a car driven by Marc R. Danekas, 17, of Apt. 10, 1845 D, was involved in a right-angle collision with a car driven by Mrs. Claire L. Mattern, 29, of 3018 So. 13th.

Danekas, his passenger, Martha K. Dornberger, 16, of 1421 So. 26th, Mrs. Mattern, and Mrs. Mattern's 3 children, Paul, 8, Eva, 5, and Mary 6, all suffered bruises but none was hospitalized.

Legislature Appropriation Is Sufficient

The Legislature turns out to have provided a comfortable cushion when it appropriated up to $8,000 to pay the costs of the recent special session called by Gov. Ralph Brooks.

Legislative Clerk Hugo Srb estimated Tuesday the cost will approximate only about half of that amount.

Costs tallied to date include $938 for senatorial mileage and $2,077 for salaries of 23 employes and officers, a total of $3,015.

Still to be received are printing bills which should bring the cost to about $4,000, Srb said.

One potential session expense was deferred at least temporarily when the Legislature was supplied with a tape recording machine for use on a trial basis without cost.

The 1959 Legislature, in adopting rules for forthcoming sessions, ordered the clerk to arrange for the recording of all debate on the legislative floor.

The recordings were made for the first time at the special session and Srb said the arrangement worked well.

When purchased, the recording and playback machines are expected to cost between $1,400 and $1,500, Srb said.

Skin Diver Gets Whale Of A Ride

Wellfleet, Mass. (UPI) — Philip Amero of East Dennis thinks he may be the only person ever to go riding on a whale.

The rugged skin diving instructor had a group of pupils in a boat a quarter mile outside Wellfleet Harbor when he saw 4 whales swimming past.

He jumped overboard with the hope of driving them into shallow water where he could photograph them with an underwater camera.

But the whales didn't frighten. So Amero swam right up and grabbed one by the dorsal fin, securing his hold by plunging a short knife into the whale's blubber, but not deep enough to hurt the big mammal.

Not until one of the students started up the boat's motor did the whale streak for the open ocean. Amero estimates he traveled 50 feet before he was washed overboard.

Advertising Pays

San Antonio, Tex. (UPI)— When advertising man John Frazier couldn't find a suitable greeting card for his wife's birthday and their wedding anniversary, he had a large sign erected atop a building, reading, "Happy Birthday and Happy Anniversary to Marcia."

Asthma Relief in Seconds!

AsthmaNefrin

A Breath of Life For Asthma Sufferers!

Provides relief in seconds. Stops asthma attack. Restores normal breathing. Faster and safer than tablets.

ASTHMANEFRIN acts 100 times faster than any tablet you can take; it restores normal breathing even faster than painful injections.

As your doctor will tell you, any tablet must first dissolve in the stomach, work its way through the bloodstream before it can reach your lung tissue and give some relief. This takes time—twenty to forty minutes.

However, when you inhale ASTHMANEFRIN using the ASTHMANEFRIN Nebulizer, the medication instantly goes to work to relieve the attack and restore normal breathing.

If you have asthma, don't let another day or night go by without the blessed relief and wonderful feeling of security that only ASTHMANEFRIN can give you! ASTHMANEFRIN is available at all drug stores. It is easy to use . . . convenient to carry. Medically endorsed ASTHMANEFRIN is so safe — no prescription is necessary. So effective—it is guaranteed to give you complete relief or your money will be fully refunded.

FREE! An interesting, informative booklet "The Inside Story of Asthma." Send your name and address to: ASTHMANEFRIN, P. O. Box 29010, G. P. O., New York 1, New York.

BRIEF FILED IN CLERK'S SALARY CASE

Attorneys for Margaret L. Bass, Saline County Court Clerk, told the State Supreme Court Tuesday that the county board exceeded its authority last fall in reducing her salary.

County Judge Jack L. Craven set the clerk's salary at $225 per month, but the county board subsequently disallowed $35 of this amount to make the salary $190.

The case was appealed to the Supreme Court after the Saline County District Court dismissed the clerk's petition.

In a brief filed with the high court Tuesday, attorneys for Margaret Bass said the board's action was "unlawful, unreasonable, arbitrary and capricious."

The board had authority only to approve or disapprove the salary determined by the county judge, and had no authority to reduce or alter the salary thus determined, the brief said.

Phone Company's Proposal Draws No Opposition

The Stanton Independent Telephone Company's proposal to borrow $260,000 to finance system improvements drew no opposition Tuesday at a Nebraska Railway Commission hearing.

The commission took the case under advisement.

The money would be used to convert the Stanton exchange to dial operation. Plans call for most rural lines to be placed underground. Included also are ticketing and timing equipment for customer toll dialing.

The Stanton Company is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Roland G. Deardorff.

2 DAWES CO. POLIO CASES BRING STATE TOTAL TO 4

Two new polio cases, both in Dawes County, have been reported to the State Health Department during the past week.

The cases bring the polio total for the year to 4, compared with 65 at this time last year.

One of the new cases was described as paralytic, the other as non-paralytic.

Also listed in the weekly report was the case of a rabid skunk in Dawson County and two new brucellosis cases, one in Otoe and one in Sherman County.

Horseback Riding Rates High With LAFB Personnel

Horseback riding was the favorite recreational activity of Lincoln Air Force Base personnel, according to a survey of the 55 programs offered by the base in its summer recreation program.

Next on the list came the State Penitentiary tour, bowling, SAC Headquarters tour, family camping, Boys Town tour, fishing and Planetarium tour.

Longest Wins

Remington, Ind. (UPI)—The first prize winner in an electric shaver company's "longest beard" contest held here was Larmon Longest.

Some 'Welsh Report' Recommendations Being Pursued Locally

Amid some criticism that the so-called "Welsh Report" to the President is being ignored on the federal level, some of its recommendations are being pursued at the Nebraska state level, Agriculture Secretary Pearle Finigan noted Tuesday.

The Welsh report on potentials for industrial utilization of agricultural products was prepared by a presidential committee headed by J. Le Roy Welsh of Omaha.

The report "proposed courses to be followed in developing castor beans and industrial products from wheat gluten and starches similar to ones now being undertaken by the Nebraska Agricultural Products Research Fund Committee," Finigan observed.

"The report recommended making harvesters available and research work in cultural practices, variety testing, economics and deallergination and detoxification.

Gathering Information

"The Nebraska castor research program this year is aimed at gathering as much information as possible about varieties and cultural practices as well as economics.

"Removing allergenic and toxic factors will be the subject of further research in cooperation with the Baker Castor Oil Co. As soon as the crop has proved itself adapted to Nebraska. At this time there is every indication that the crop will prove itself.

Banquet Will Honor

Norfolk—Dr. and Mrs. Allen P. Burkhardt will be honored at a city-wide banquet Wednesday, Sept. 7, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce on behalf of the citizens of Norfolk. Dr. Burkhardt resigned recently as superintendent of the Norfolk public schools to accept a position at Wayne State Teachers College.

Color Draws People

Lebanon, Va. (AP) — Charlie Fields, a 66-year-old bachelor likes people and colors, and he uses the latter to get the former. His house, including the roof, is a riot of red, white and blue paint. All the furniture, walls and ceiling are painted similarly. And the lawn has colorfully painted ferris wheels, airplanes, merry-go-rounds. "I like people, especially children, and it attracts them," says Fields.

Stocks Resume Upward Trend

New York (AP)—The stock market resumed the uptrend Monday amid a spurt of renewed trading interest. Turnover was moderate.

It was the eighth day of advance in the past ten sessions. A seven-day rise by the averages was broken by Monday's mixed market. The pattern remained uneven early Tuesday but then a general improvement took place.

Brokers said the failure of sharp profit taking to occur after the prolonged advance encouraged further commitments. At the same time, several analysts expressed the opinion that the now familiar squeeze on profits had been fully discounted by the prices of many "oversold" stocks.

The Dow Jones average rose 1.26 to 625.43.

Volume improved to 2,710,000 shares compared with 2,450,000 in Monday's hesitant session.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose .70 to 220.20 with industrials up 1.00, the rails up .60 and the utilities up .40 to a new high for this year.

American Stock Exchange prices were generally higher as volume rose to 1,220,000 shares from 1,170,000 Monday.

Corporate bonds rose in slightly more active trading.

U.S. government bonds declined in slow dealings.

Bond volume edged forward to $4,770,000 from $4,740,000 par value Monday.

Corn, Soyas Up; Trade Speculative

Chicago (AP)—Trade in grain futures Monday was mainly speculative with feed grains and soybeans working higher, wheat and rye lower.

Crop advices that corn and soybeans probably will need almost ideal weather and a late frost to escape some damage attracted short covering to both those commodities. Liquidation weakened wheat and most rye contracts.

Trade was slow with commercial demand light. Wheat, steady most of the day on scattered export demand, retreated during the final few minutes as offerings became liberal.

At the close, wheat was unchanged to ¾ cent a bushel lower. September $1.85; corn ⅝-½ higher, September $1.15½-⅝; oats ⅜-¾ higher, September 65⅝-⅞; rye ⅛ higher to ¾ lower, September $1.14⅝; soybeans ⅜-⅝ higher, September $2.15⅜-½.

Col. Hastings To Direct 12 Lincoln Missile Bases

Omaha (AP)—Col. Vernon L. Hastings, who is in charge of preparing Omaha area Atlas launch bases, also will direct the activating of 12 intercontinental ballistic missile sites surrounding the Lincoln Air Force Base.

Col. Hastings

Maj. Gen. O. J. Ritland, commander of the Air Force ballistic missile division, has notified Hastings of the additional assignment, the colonel's office said Tuesday.

Col. Hastings has his office at the Mead Ordnance Plant where planning and administration of the Lincoln missile sites also is being handled.

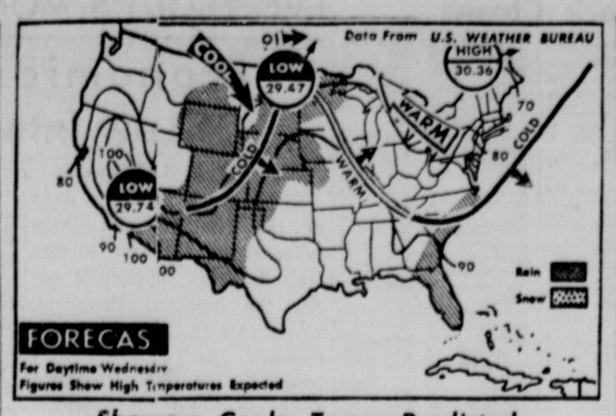

Hastings will work directly under Maj. Gen. Thomas P. Gerrity, whose Air Force Ballistic Missile Center recently was given the job of expediting the Atlas base program.

Hastings' activities in regard to the Omaha area base work are expected to remain under the Air Force Ballistic Missile Division, which is part of the Air Research and Development Command.

Gerrity's organization is a unit of the Air Materiel Command.

Hastings will command the Air Materiel Command and the Air Research and Development Command detachments in the Omaha and Lincoln areas. These will be grouped into the Offutt-Lincoln Site Activation Task Force.

Hastings, in charge of Omaha area missile work for the past year, is a native of Table Rock, Neb., and a former resident of Aurora and Lincoln.

Showers, Cooler Temps Predicted

Showers and thundershowers are forecast Wednesday over most of the Plains and Rockies as well as along the south Atlantic and Gulf coasts. There is also some shower activity indicated for the Pacific northwest. Cool weather should prevail over much of the Plateau region and northern Plains. It will be somewhat warmer in the Ohio Valley and Great Lakes. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Singer Awaits Authorities In Sidney Jail

Sidney (AP) — Long distance bicycle rider Robert Hall, his trip to Alaska halted by the law, remained in jail here Tuesday awaiting arrival of West Virginia authorities.

Sheriff W. W. Schulz said Hall waived extradition to West Virginia to face grand larceny charges. Authorities from West Virginia have not yet arrived in Sidney.

Hall, 24-year-old rock 'n roll singer, was en route from Annapolis, Md., to Alaska by bicycle when he stopped here over the week end, out of funds and undecided whether to continue the trip.

Then he got word that a Cumberland, Md., hotel man would underwrite the rest of the trip. But shortly afterwards, Hall was arrested by the Nebraska Safety Patrol at the request of West Virginia officers.

Prosecuctor Velmer Knapp in Wpnfield, W.Va., said Hall is charged with grand larceny, accused by his father-in-law, J. B. Kirk of Nitro, W.Va., of taking several rifles from the Kirk home earlier this year.

Hall said it was a "mixup" and that he had returned the rifles. He said he hopes to straighten out his troubles in West Virginia and make another attempt to reach Alaska by bike, maybe next year.

Jones Being Held In State Prison

Broken Bow—Darrel O. Jones, 17, of Lexington, charged with first degree murder in the slaying of his uncle, Carl Tederman Aug. 7, has been removed from the Custer County jail to the Nebraska State Penitentiary for safekeeping.

Officials said the District Court trial for the youth probably will not be held until the boy's father, Mural Jones, is out of the hospital and able to attend. The elder Jones was allegedly wounded by his son the same night as the murder.

Men Directing Church Affairs Need Great Vision—Dr. Harms

Lincoln Star Special

Seward — "The men who are giving direction to our scientific effort at space utilization and control must have great vision, but the vision of men directing the affairs of the church must be even greater," the first vice president of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod said here Tuesday.

Dr. Harms

Dr. Oliver Harms of St. Louis, was a speaker at the church's Southern Nebraska District convention.

He told the delegates the church is planning a literacy campaign in its foreign mission program.

"The synod plans not only to teach the natives of Asian and African countries how to read," he said, "but also to supply them with Christian reading materials."

Dr. Harms reported that the Synodical Committee on doctrinal unity which represents the Synod in official contacts with other Lutheran churches and synods "for the conservation and preservation of the true faith and a united defense against schism and sectarianism is conducting theological conferences in England, Germany and France in order to establish, preserve or strengthen the bonds that tie Missouri Synod to scattered Lutheran groups throughout the world who take a strong confessional stand."

Missile Train Leaves Utah On Final Test

Hill Air Force Base, Utah (AP)—The Air Force says its minuteman mobility test train has gathered needed information ahead of schedule.

The 13-car train left this northern Utah base Tuesday on the 4th and final test run over western railroad tracks. Six runs originally had been planned by its Strategic Air Command crew.

Gen. Thomas S. Power, Sac commander, said: "We have found the test program completely successful in providing the information we need to make firm plans for the mobile minuteman."

The train will stop at SAC headquarters at Omaha for inspection by officials.

The final run of 10 days will take the train through Utah, Wyoming, Nebraska, Colorado, Missouri and Iowa utilizing 7 railroads. Purpose of the test runs has been to check rail and car stress factors, vibration, mobility and communications. A third stage engine of the solid-fuel minuteman was carried on the final run to test vibration damage.

Minuteman missiles, capable of a 6,300-mile range, are expected to be operational in mid-1962. Plans call for some of them to be housed in underground silos and others to be mounted on railroad launching platforms. Minuteman trains presumably would be kept moving to make it difficult for an enemy to locate them.

House Still Unable To Do Work

Washington (AP) — Republicans and Democrats were counting noses and commenting Tuesday on who's paying attention to Congress' business.

The count, for the second day in a row, kept the house from doing business because it lacks a quorum of 217 of its 432 members.

Rep. H. R. Gross, Iowa, Republican, has been demanding the quorum call in the House. And Tuesday the House adjourned after 5 minutes without even calling the roll to see how many turned up.

And GOP congress leaders, after another of their White House breakfast sessions with President Eisenhower, accused the Democrats of falling down on the job of enacting needed legislation.

House minority leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana said it looked as though the Democrats, with a 2-1 majority in Congress, "apparently will take no action in many vital areas of legislation" recommended by President Eisenhower in his special message to the post-convention Congress.

And the Republicans, who started the session out with a civil rights bill, have agreed to take no further action in that field for a while. "It's problematical if anything more will be done," said Senate minority leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, whose civil rights bill has been tabled and thus virtually killed.

In the presidential campaign, both sides were organizing committees, schedules and philosophizing on politics.

Kennedy, who says he'll visit newly emerging countries in Africa if elected, declared America needs to recapture its old national purpose rather than create a new one.

Series Set

Meanwhile, after a meeting with a group of 19 of his policy advisers, Nixon announced he'll issue a series of papers outlining his own thinking on key campaign issues.

The first, expected to be released Thursday, will discuss Nixon's ideas on communism as a philosophy.

On a less serious side of the campaign, Nixon helped launch a "celebrities for Nixon committee" Tuesday. He hopes to enlist Hollywood, Broadway and baseball stars in a talent pool to swing uncertain voters over to the Republican presidential ticket. Actress Helen Hayes and Hollywood Producer Mervyn Leroy head the group.

Getting down to schedules: Nixon prepared for his speech-making visit to Greensboro, N.C., on Wednesday.

And both presidential candidates accepted invitations to speak at the American Legion's annual convention in Miami Beach. Kennedy will appear Oct. 19 and Nixon Oct. 20. Both are Legion members.

A Saturday session of the Senate was giving Kennedy schedule problems.

Hallam Is Sued In Sewer Dispute

A family which farms south of Hallam filed a $50,500 damage suit Tuesday against the Village of Hallam in connection with a sewer dispute.

Fred, Bena and Curtis Schwaninger allege in their suit that 5 acres of their land was condemned in 1959 by Hallam for use as a sewage pit. They allege the village has allowed the pit to overflow onto their farm land.

The Schwaningers contend this overflow has interfered with their farming and dairy herd operation.

One Little Error

Paris (AP)—Jean Franz had a quick explanation for the jacketful of jewelry police found on him: "They're for my girl friend, Marguerite." Officers just as quickly charged Franz with burglary after picking a jeweled necktie pin out of the collection.

Woman Fined For Shooting Her Husband

A 43-year-old Wichita, Kan., woman who shot her husband in the leg during a domestic argument Sunday was fined $200 on an assault and battery charge Tuesday by County Judge Herbert A. Ronin.

Mrs. Imogene Kelsey pleaded guilty to the charge.

Judge Ronin said he was taking into consideration in setting the amount of the fine the fact Mrs. Kelsey had been knocked down 3 times during the argument before she wounded her husband with her .38 revolver. Judge Ronin also noted that her husband, Bennie, 45, had asked that no charges be filed against his wife.

Kelsey is listed in satisfactory condition at a hospital.

The shooting occurred at Kelsey's home at 1205 No. 22nd. Mrs. Kelsey had come to Lincoln to visit her husband, who has been here since May. They reportedly argued over financial troubles.

No Charges Set In Alleged Rape

Chief Dep. County Atty. Paul Douglas said Tuesday no charges will be filed in connection with an alleged rape Aug. 10.

Douglas made his decision following lie detector tests given to the 22-year-old woman involved and the 24-year-old man she named as her assailant.

The man admitted having relations with the woman in her apartment, police said, but he denied using force.

Seagull Poisoning Draws Complaints

Nantucket, Mass. (AP) — A complaint that more than 2,000 seagulls had been poisoned at nearby Muskeget Island by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service was met Tuesday with an explanation by that agency that 1,500 birds had been killed in a scientific approach to controlling the gull population.

John S. Gottschalk, regional director of the Wildlife Service, said in Boston the experiment was to determine a humane means of solving problems of pollution, health and sanitation and danger to aircraft created by too many gulls.

He said it was further designed to assist in the survival of rare laughing gulls, threatened with extermination by an increasing herring gull population.

Rustlers Still Busy

Santa Fe, Argentina (AP) — Rustling is still the biggest headache for police in this central Argentine province. Rustlers in the past year made off with 1,800 head of cattle valued at $100,000 from the big, British-owned Bovril ranch.
